WHERE THERE'S SUNSHINE

brightness prevails. Where there's an "OD" Settee-Bed the unexpected guest can always be put up in style and comfort. It is really a bed though ordinarily it acts as and is a Settee.

Its construction is a work of art, so beautiful and perfect is it made. The need for such a convenient article in present-day houses is apparent and the demand is consequently very great indeed. It stands for rest—day and night.

How it achieves this double purpose is worth your while to find out—the mechanism is decidedly novel and interesting.

Make your home complete—instal an "OD" Settee-Bed.

THE PRIVETS.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Garden Correspondent says:—

One of the most remarkable of the Privet tribe is Ligustrum lucidum, with its large, shiny green foliage and sprays of white, or rather creamy-white, Lilac-like flowers, quite an aristocrat of the family. Sweetly fragrant, we regard this as quite one of the best shrubs at the present season. Of the golden Privets we cannot speak too highly, if it is not superfluous to mention what is now so often seen and so generally well known; but the variety, ovalifolium aureum, much less rarely seen, is so infinitely superior as to demand attention. We are reminded of the ease with which it is propagated, and its apparent scarcity, by the advertisement of an eminent nursery firm for cuttings.

TURKEYS.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Poultry Correspondent says:—

Young turkeys which have passed the critical stage of "shooting the red" may be allowed full liberty, and, as insect food has been plentiful this year, they should not require animal food, but if they are at all backward they should have a little meat or meat meal daily. They should thrive well on the stubbles when the corn is stacked. Care must be taken with the old stock turkeys at moulting time. They should be fed well, with a little meat daily. If the weather is fine, they may be allowed their liberty, but otherwise it is better to confine them to large open-fronted sheds where they will get most of the sun.

Unsatisfactory dealing by any Advertiser in this column should be immediately reported to the Manager of the "Irish Times."

TEN STAGES OF CHILD LAUGHTER.

A PROFESSOR'S EXPERIMENTS.

MR. BERNARD SHAW AMONG THE SCIENTISTS.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM.
BRISTOL, Friday.

Mr. George Bernard Shaw, the man who has often taken scientists by the ears with the courage characteristic of him, suddenly descended upon the British Association to-day. Mr. Shaw had discarded the mantle of the dramatist, and had come to sit at the feet of the scientists, so to speak, to hear their views on the prosaic problems of agriculture.

It was surprising how learned professors forgot the abstruse subjects which usually engage their mind and evinced an unexpected interest in this national question. Were they interested in agriculture or Mr. Bernard Shaw?

So many people wanted to hear Mr. Shaw that a special large hall at the rear of the University had to be engaged.

BOX OFFICE RETURNS.

Mr. Shaw listened with attentiveness to a paper on the "Agricultural Problem of South Africa," but when invited to speak said it appeared to him an act of incredible frivolity to ask him to intervene in a debate on a very serious subject.

"I know nothing whatever about agricultural chemistry or about South Africa," said Mr. Shaw. "There is only one product of South Africa of which I know anything, and that is box office returns. I can only say they are often very far from satisfactory." (Laughter.)

The scientists to-day revealed to us the ten stages of child laughter; the child's fairyland; the music hall turn which convulsed the king; the belief that women make better rent collectors than men, the satisfactory position of Great Britain's dye-stuffs industry, and a host of other more or less interesting theories and conclusions.

CAUSES OF LAUGHTER.

Professor C. W. Valentine, in his presidential address to the section in psychology, said the careful observation of the earliest occasions of laughter suggested that the causes were varied.

He gave the following results from observation and experiment with one of his own boys:—

(1) The first clear laugh was at the end of thirty-nine days—a laugh of delight at being put into a position to take food. Several observations showed that the getting of food, or anticipation of it, was the earliest cause of laughter.

(2) The next occurrence of laughter was in response to laughter of father or mother at ten weeks, followed by laughter even at a smile.

(3) The third occurrence was caused by tickling, also at ten weeks.

(4) The fourth type is laughter at the sight of a bright or pleasing object—twelve weeks.

(5) Laughter at a simple shock or surprise—eighteen weeks. By this age laughter was very frequent.

(6) Imitating actions seemed to cause laughter at about six months. The comic effect of mere repetition remains long in operation. A comedian says: "Now we shan't be long," and no one takes any notice. He says it again, and people smile; again, and there is a roar of laughter. It is the six-months-old baby reaction.

(7) The next cause of laughter (seven months) was the unfamiliar and unusual in the midst of the familiar—the sight of mother in a paper cocked hat.

(8) At seven months there were suggestions of laughter at mere recognition.

(9) Between eight and twelve months another cause of laughter appeared—the successful accomplishment of some new activity, such as standing alone.

(10) The sight of mild discomfiture of another—a well-known cause of laughter—was not observed until the seventeenth month, when the child gave loud roars of laughter when his mother tumbled down a grass bank.

PLAYING AT "LIONS."

He added that neither experience nor suggestion could account for horror of the uncanny—of strange masks or horrid faces. There was ample evidence, too, of a love of "playing" with the fear stimulus. This led children to ask over and over again for a game of "lions," though it had previously ended, and would again end, in tears and shrieks of fear. This love of playing with fear suggested a deep innate tendency, a craving for stimulus denied in our civilised life.

THE CHILD'S FAIRYLAND.

All the world is a stage—at any rate to the young child. Little boys and girls are at first all dramatists, making a play of their surroundings and regarding the world as "a canvas on which to project their personal wishes and anxieties."

Mrs. [illegible] Isaacs dealt with this aspect of child life when addressing an audience, composed almost entirely of women, on the subject of the relation between thought and fantasy in young children. Children climbing a tree, she said, would suddenly turn it in imagination into an ogre's castle, and the child at the top of the tree would become a gaint. One child of four spent hours experimenting with fire and water, and watching the rain, and seemed to gain as much dramatic interest and thrill out of those things as some grown ups from detective stories or jazz music.

Children could sometimes exploit fantasy for common sense, practical purposes. In her school it was a custom for children to wash up their own things after a meal. One day they played at restaurants and asked Mrs. Isaacs to be a waiter. She accordingly waited on them, and at the end of the meal they said smilingly: "Of course, in a restaurant the customers do not do their own washing-up?" So she had to wash up for them. (Laughter.)

WOMEN THE BEST RENT COLLECTORS.

The superiority of women over men, as rent collectors, was mentioned by Sir John Mann, a housing expert, in an address to the economic section on "some neglected aspects of the housing problem." From personal experience of working class property in Glasgow, he said he had found the best results, ethical and financial, followed from entrusting rent collecting to trained women managers.

"I do not say that many men cannot be found to do the work well," he remarked, "but women can do it better. Male clerks may collect rents and remember or forget to order repairs, but would they advise a tenant to open a window of a stuffy room, or suggest how to handle a fretful child? Yet, all these things that make for happiness and comfort are within the daily duties of women managers."

COMEDIAN WHO CONVULSED THE KING.

A music hall "turn" which was said to have convulsed the King was described by Sir Percy T. Nunn, of London, in the course of a discussion on the causes of laughter.

"Quite the funniest thing I ever saw in my life," he said "consisted of an entertainment I visited in my irresponsible youth. A comedian came on the stage with a large lady—his wife—and the fun consisted entirely of nothing at all but the continual dropping and breaking of plates. That went on until the whole theatre was rocking with laughter.

"I was told by my companion that my own behaviour on that occasion was perfectly disgraceful. (Laughter.) I was lost in the rich humour of it. I can only say in justification that the King, who was then the Prince of Wales, went to the performance in the following week, and I am credibly informed that he, too, was incapacitated by it."

Professor C. W. Valentine, speaking of falling in love, said:—"A youth may meet a girl day after day and week after week, and then some stimulus occurs, and the next day he is in love.

"It has been waiting and ripening, and then there comes the stimulus, and it is there—at any rate, for a time." (Laughter.)

Professor Leonard Hill told an amusing story to members of the Engineering Section, when he was illustrating what might happen under rapid changes of air pressure. A tube tunnel had been completed in New York and the City Fathers decided to celebrate by holding a champagne luncheon in the tunnel. When the champagne was opened it failed to fizz. The majority of the City Fathers thought it must be flat and undrinkable, but one, tasting it, found it very easy to drink and consumed nearly half a bottle. He replaced the cork and put the bottle with the remaining half in his pocket.

When the City Fathers returned to the surface the cork blew out of the bottle with a report like a gun and hit an alderman. The half-bottle inside the City Father immediately released all its CO_2, and the City Father nearly burst. (Laughter.)

SIR ARTHUR KEITH AND THE "BRAIN BELT."

Sir Arthur Keith delivered the Beddoe Memorial Lecture to members of the British Association last night. Dr. John Beddoe was a Bristol physician and amateur anthropologist. Dr. Beddoe, Sir Arthur recalled, was born at Bewdley, which was in Sir Francis Galton's "brain belt." This belt, passing from Liverpool to Swansea, included the English counties bordering on Wales. It had given England many of her distinguished men of science, and coincided with an old ethnological frontier across which Saxon and Celt had freely exchanged their heritage of blood. Sir Arthur suggested that in honour of Dr. Beddoe's memory a Chair of Anthropology should be founded in Bristol.

THE STORY OF A WAR MYSTERY.

The reason why certain shells of American manufacture fell short during the war was revealed by Sir Ernest Moir, who was sent to America to investigate the cause. The shells, said Sir Ernest, had been very accurate up to a point. The timing had been very regular and the percentage of error very small. Suddenly, however, the guns told another story, and the timing and the bursting of the shrapnel was extremely short. He visited the factory, and for a time was unable to account for the change. Then it occurred to him that there might have been some change in the manner of handling the powder, and consequently a change in the voids between the particles of powder.

He asked the head of the firm if he had introduced any changes, and he replied "Yes." We have been making an addition to our factory, and have had to bring the powder in motor lorries over temporary roads instead of by railway waggon.

"That, said Sir Ernest, was the explanation. The powder had been shaken more in the lorries than it had when brought up by rail. The voids between the particles were less and the quantity of air less, and the rate of burning consequently was affected.

1934 MEETINGS IN ABERDEEN.

The Committee of the British Association in Bristol to-day received a deputation from Aberdeen, and accepted an invitation for the Association to meet there in 1934, the earliest year available. Next year's meetings are to be in London, those of 1932 in York, and for 1933 at Leicester. The following were elected members of the Council for the ensuing year:—Professor H. Clay, Professor W. T. Gordon, Dr. G. W. Kimmins, Dr. H. T. Tizard, and Sir Chalmers Mitchell.

VIMY RIDGE.

CANADA'S IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL.

The Vimy Ridge memorial to Canada's missing warriors will be the most impressive War memorial ever erected, said Brigadier-General H. T. Hughes, Chief Engineer of the Canadian Battlefields Memorials Commission, when he sailed from Southampton yesterday on the Canadian Pacific liner Montclare for Montreal.

"This memorial," he added, "is the last of eight memorials upon which we have been working in France and Belgium. It will stand in 225 acres of ground, and the names of 11,500 missing Canadian soldiers will be inscribed on it. Several years must elapse before it will be finished.

"In the ground around the memorial we have opened up a Canadian and German front-line trench, and also the "Grange Tunnel," which runs for about seven or eight hundred yards below ground at a depth of forty feet. This tunnel is of chalk, and its walls bear the names of hundreds of Canadian soldiers who lived in it before the battle of April 9, 1917.

"The stone for the memorial is being hewn from the mountains in Yugoslavia. Many blocks of stone weigh between twenty and thirty tons, and from one of these blocks a female figure representing Canada is being carved. This statue will stand over a tomb symbolising the grave of an Unknown Warrior."

AN IRISHMAN'S DIARY.

Rialto Bridge.

I am glad to note that the City Commissioners are about to start upon the reconstruction of Rialto Bridge, a work which has been urged many times here. This is one of the really dangerous points in the city, being the only way out from the southern suburbs to the Phœnix Park. This bridge, fancifully named after the famous Venetian bridge, has the humped-back so characteristic of all the canal-bridges around Dublin. It is so narrow that two vehicles have difficulty in passing, and its high gradient makes a view of an approaching vehicle almost impossible.

The new bridge will be double the width of the present structure, and the approach on either side will be arranged to give fair visibility to drivers of cars. As this bridge carries main-road traffic, increasing so rapidly every year, it is marvellous that no serious accident has occurred on it in recent years. Some years ago a "brake," carrying an excursion party, overturned on the hump-back top, and many people were injured.

Cole's Char.

Lough Dan, in Wicklow, and Lough Esk are the haunts of a variety of that peculiar salmonoid fish, the char. Their unfortunate penchant for very deep water renders them almost useless as a sporting fish in our waters, though in some of the English lakes and on the Continent they are occasionally caught with the fly. They are nearly all fish of extreme beauty. Cole's char from Loughs Dan and Esk has a bluish-black back, sides silvery, with salmon-coloured markings, while during the breeding season the bellies of the male assume a delicate roseate hue. Their comparative scarcity and abysmal haunts make their commercial value almost nil, though in Windermere and other large lakes some hundreds of pounds' worth used to be taken annually. Potted char is reckoned a delicacy in the Lake Districts. Wales possesses the Torgoch, a most brilliantly coloured variety, with a light green back, sides yellowish, with deep orange or reddish splashes, and a bright red belly. Some of the Continental species are so large and well-flavoured that to introduce them to some of our large, yet poorly stocked, lakes might well be an excellent commercial venture.

Roy Chapman Andrews.

As a welcome departure from the usual Chinese budget of famines, revolutions and plagues, comes news from Pekin of Mr. Roy Chapman Andrews, the eminent American explorer-scientist. Mr. Andrews, who really sprang into fame through his discoveries of dinosaur eggs in Mongolia, is now back again in China, where he has made more important discoveries. He is now engaged in excavating remains of the shovel-toothed mastodon, which, with other important fossils, have been "located" in the bed of a dried-up lake. Mr. Andrews is no humdrum cabinet collector, but a scientist, whose thirst for knowledge has led him all over the world collecting. He began his scientific career in the New York Museum of Natural History, where he scrubbed floors at first. His zeal and intelligence won the good-will and interest of Dr. Bumpus, the then Director, who soon advanced him to responsible scientific work. His first serious job was to help to construct a life-size model of a sulphur bottom whale out of paper. Then followed an expedition down to Long Island to obtain the complete skeleton of an Atlantic right whale that had been captured and killed there. After a week's terrific labour—often in icy water—he and a colleague successfully accomplished the task. Henry Fairfield Osborn, the famous palæontologist and pupil of Huxley, gave him much encouragement, and now he roams the world reconstructing the vanished ages from fossil-bone deposits.

A "Poet."

A correspondent writes:—I often have heard of the old woman of Glendalough, whose disbelief in Sir Walter Scott's poetical powers were referred to in the "Diary" the other day; but people have been content to take the story at its face value. They have been ready to treat her surprise as merely the ignorance of a peasant, whereas to her the word had a meaning which she could not connect with the great Sir Walter, of whom she had heard so much.

Formerly in Ireland to speak of an idiot, a good-for-nothing—in short, an angashore—the term "a poet" was used by the peasantry. How it came to have this significant meaning I do not know, but it is easy to understand the old woman's horror at hearing her great visitor called one. I have heard that in the more remote parts of the country the term is still in use.

Grouse.

While everyone must applaud the excellent measures taken to restore our game birds, there will be many to deplore the introduction of the British red grouse (Lagopus Scoticus). Our Irish bird is a larger and finer grouse, though, perhaps, the other has a better flavour. Surely strict preservation of the native variety would result eventually in such an increase that whole packs could be trapped and redistributed all over our depleted mountains without introducing birds from Yorkshire.

Popular Instruments.

What is the most popular musical instrument? Recently a French wireless journal submitted the question to a referendum of its readers, and the voting occasioned some surprises. As might be expected, the violin came second in popular favour, with the 'cello a close third. Next in order, after a considerable interval, came the guitar, the cornet, the flute, the bugle and the saxophone.

What came first? Most people here would probably say the piano. But the two chief surprises of the referendum were the lowly place given in popular esteem to the piano—perhaps, because children learn it in Paris as they do in Dublin—and the immense majority by which the premier position was given to the accordion. It is not at all unlikely that a referendum on the subject would have a similar result in Ireland, as the "melodeon" may be encountered in all parts of the country and in large numbers of rural homes. It is the "band" for country dances generally.

Irish Canon's Reminiscences.

The Rev. Canon Henry Kingsmill Moore, D.D., whose "Reminiscences and Reflections from Sixty Years of Life in Ireland" will be published this month by Messrs. Longmans, has spent the greater part of his career in the work of education. Canon Moore is an old student of Midleton College, Cork, whence he went on for further studies at Balliol College, Oxford. He was ordained as a deacon in 1879, and ten years later became a Diocesan Inspector at Cork. Subsequently he became Canon of St. Patrick's National Cathedral, and he served as chaplain to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. His services to the cause of education have been noteworthy. In particular, he has done good work as a member of the Board of Education, and since 1889 he has been a member of the Standing Committee of the General Synod. Three years ago he was appointed a member of the committee set up to report on the present system of inspection of national schools.

CANON KINGSMILL MOORE.

Canon Moore has also been an ardent supporter of Sunday School work, and he has been secretary of the Sunday School Society of Ireland. It was on the nomination of the late Archbishop of Canterbury that he was appointed a member of the committee set up by the Lambeth Conference for the development of Sunday School teaching.

He is the author of several historical and educational books, including the "Irish History for Young Readers."

The End of the "Sunbeam."

The announcement that the Sunbeam is to be broken up at Morecambe will be received with some regret by an older generation of readers, to whom its name was made familiar by a once-famous "best-seller." "The Voyage of the Sunbeam" was, at least up to the outbreak of the Great War, one of the books that everyone read, but in recent years it might only be encountered on the second-hand shelves of bookshops.

When Lord Brassey became Governor of Victoria he sailed to Australia in the Sunbeam, and it was of its world-cruise in 1876-7 that Lady Brassey wrote the famous book. Such notabilities as the late King Edward VII., the ex-Kaiser, Tennyson, Gladstone and Admiral von Tirpitz were at times on board as guests, and at the outbreak of the War the Sunbeam was actually in the Kiel Canal on a visit. During the War the famous yacht served as a hospital ship. Sir Walter Runciman, the present owner, has ordered that certain parts of the yacht shall be made into articles of furniture.

Area "Gardens."

Your paragraph on the ferns and flowers in Dublin areas, writes a correspondent, confined its attention to the more "respectable" streets in the centre of the city. Equally good, if not often much better, effects might be found in some of the slum districts.

Every day I have to pass through one of the most densely-populated slum districts of the city, and always I am struck by the obvious love of flowers by the dwellers in these tenement houses. Many of the single-room dwellings have window-boxes full of flowers on their window-sills, but the most astonishing display is in an "area." Here is the richest profusion of sweet pea that I have seen this year; so rich is the growth that the windows are almost obscured. Flowers of almost every variety are grown by this enthusiastic "gardener," some in a layer of soil laid on the concrete foundation, but the greater number in pots and boxes scattered along the entire available space. Not an inch is devoid of flowers.

The English Cricket Championship.

The English County Cricket Championship, which has finished its course this week, has been sadly interfered with by bad weather, but it has abundantly justified the abolition of the old percentage system, which was always a trouble to many cricket followers, and its replacement by a simple system of scoring by points.

There are, however, still many critics of the method of allowing points for a win on the first innings in unfinished matches, it being urged that the system tends to slower play. There is some justification for this point of view, and the Lancashire v. Yorkshire matches have now regularly resolved themselves into a fight for first innings points.

Lancashire, by heading the table this year, win the championship for the fourth time in five years, but their slow play has been criticised even by their own supporters. They have, however, been able to avoid defeat, and thus finish ahead of Gloucestershire by three points. The Gloucestershire team play particularly bright cricket, and the many supporters of cricket would have liked to see them carry off the honours.

The championship contest has, of course, suffered in interest because of the visit of the Australians, and it has been a serious matter for some counties that the apportionment of four days apiece for the Test matches keeps a selected player out of his county side for two matches. Thus, a player chosen for all the Tests misses ten of his county's matches.

Deer-Stalking.

Deer-stalking, which is the King's favourite sport in the Highlands, has occasional complications where Royalty are concerned. There is a story of King Edward, when Prince of Wales, stalking in the forest of Glenarty. In those days he was young and impetuous, and inclined, therefore, in such a delicate operation as stalking, to spoil his own sport by his enthusiasm. To prevent this the veteran stalker who accompanied him whispered to a subordinate at a critical moment, "Haud the Prince, Donald, while I creep forward and keek ower the brow o' the hill." But Donald, aghast at the idea of restraining so august a person, answered quickly, "Haud the Prince! Haud the Prince! That I'll no! Haud him yersel', and I'll keek ower the hill for the deer."

Three Kinds of Clergymen.

The pupils of a certain elementary school in London were recently asked to write an essay on "The Duties of a Clergyman," and some very amusing essays were submitted for examination by the headmaster. The following was considered to be the gem of the collection:—

There are three kinds of clergymen—Bishops, Vicers and Curats. The Bishop tells the Vicers to work, and the Curats have to do it. A Curat is a thin married man, but when he is a Vicer he gets fuller and fuller, and can preach longer sermons and becomes a good man.

Tomatoes.

How many know that well-ripened tomatoes are a most excellent cosmetic? Crushed and liberally smeared over the face and hands they have a singularly cleansing and refreshing action. In the Channel Islands numbers of girls owe their fine complexions to this useful fruit, and workers in the tomato fields, who get their hands covered with copper sulphate and Paris green from spraying the vines, rapidly free their hands from these poisonous chemicals with a tomato or two.

QUIDNUNC.

A JOYOUS REVUE.

CHARLOT'S MASQUERADE.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.
LONDON, Friday.

At London's newest theatre, "The Cambridge," last night, M. Andre Charlot presented a most delightful entertainment in "Charlot's Masquerade." The words are by Mr. Ronald Jeans, the lyrics by Mr. Rowland Leigh, but no fewer than ten musicians have been brought together to provide the charming music, which is uniformly pleasing. The dresses and scenery are gay, bright and novel, while the revue is brightened by a number of sketches most admirably played. The great feature of the evening was an imitation of Miss Tallulah Bankhead by Miss Florence Desmond, recognised by the audience as a remarkable piece of work.

Miss Beatrice Lillie, who is the star of the production, impersonates Miss Ruth Draper as well as other people, and is extremely successful in making her points.

Mr. Anton Dolin leads two beautiful ballets with his usual grace, and there are so many other attractions that it is impossible to deal with everything. Mr. J. H. Roberts, Mr. Quentin Tod, Mr. Henry Kendall, Mr. Patrick Waddington, Mr. Reginald Smith, Miss Constance Carpenter, Miss Dora Vadimova and Miss Betty Frankiss, all help to give an entertainment which is as bright as anything London has to offer.

A STEAMER FOR DIAMOND.

TO LEAVE FOR AMERICA TO-DAY.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
BERLIN, Friday.

The Bremen police have succeeded in securing a berth for Jack Diamond on a steamer which will leave for America tomorrow. Diamond will be escorted to Hamburg to-day. The name of the Hamburg hotel where he will stay the night is being kept secret. The steamer belongs to the Hamburg Shipping Company.

Diamond, who has a considerable sum of money in his possession, received a visit from his American solicitor to-day. He came from Paris, and had a conversation with the provincial Governor of Aix-la-Chapelle about the expulsion of his client. He further discussed the affair with the Bremen police authorities.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

WORK IN THE LIBRARY.

PROFESSORS EN VOYAGE.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

During July and August the Library closed at four o'clock, and many earnest candidates for Moderatorship, Bar final, and other important examinations were forced to betake themselves to the National Library after that hour, or to work in their rooms without the benefit of those costly and cumbersome tomes which are to be found only in libraries. On September 1st, however, the Library staff resumed their normal working hours, and the Library now remains open till ten o'clock at night.

At this time of the year, when the epidemic of examinations begins to rage furiously, it is necessary to arrive at ten o'clock in the morning to make sure of getting the volume one requires, or even of getting a seat. Potential Moderators and honour students regard with disfavour the mere pass student, with his paltry elements of Euclid and his contemptible key to the Æneid. He is considered so inferior as to be unworthy of a seat where the accommodation is so limited. The most exclusive type of reader, however, is the really erudite scholar who pores over ancient manuscripts. How one works on a manuscript for the first time is a mystery; for the authorities guard them so vigilantly that only scholars with great experience of working on manuscripts are allowed to touch them. Even these privileged ones are supplied with sheets of celluloid to protect the precious pages from their destructive, though scholarly, fingers. A distinguished scholar who recently visited the Library is Professor MacCracken, President of Vassar College, one of the most important women's colleges in the U.S.A. He passed the test and was permitted to do some work on a Chaucer manuscript.

TWO PROFESSORS.

While the romance of mediævalism attracts an American Professor to Trinity, two Trinity Professors have succumbed to the lure of the New World. Dr. Brontë Gatenby, Professor of Zoology and Comparative Anatomy, departs this week for America. He will carry no musical instruments with him, and he has no intention of submitting himself to the fiercely cultured gaze of those American matrons who so dearly love an Irish celebrity. He will eschew the women's clubs and the English-speaking unions, and will confine himself to research work in Yale University. His absence, however, will be merely temporary, whereas Dr. J. L. Synge, who is en route for Canada, goes to take up the post of Lecturer in Mathematics in Toronto University. Dr. Synge, who is a nephew of the famous dramatist, was University Professor of Natural Philosophy since 1925, in which year he became a Junior Fellow.

The marriages of several Trinity graduates have taken place recently. On August 23rd Mr. A. C. Strahan was married to Miss Phyllis Wilson at Kuala Kuba, Federated Malay States. Mr. Strahan had a distinguished career in Trinity, gaining a Scholarship and Moderatorship, with large gold medal in Classics. He was also President of the Philosophical Society, and Editor and Chairman of "T.C.D." He went out to Malaya last year to take up an educational appointment. Dr. A. Jervoise Garde, of Flushing, Cornwall, was married last week to Miss Ruth Cohen at St. Ann's, Dawson street. Dr. Garde's best man, Mr. G. Stewart, is also a Trinity graduate.

A SCHOLAR SPORTSMAN.

Dr. R. H. Q. O'Meara, who was married in Dublin this week to Miss Margretta Neary, had a brilliant career in college. He took a Scholarship in Experimental Science and Moderatorship in Natural Science, gaining a large gold medal. He obtained very high marks in his medical finals, and after qualifying was for a time Assistant to the Professor of Bacteriology. In 1928 he gained a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship in Public Health. M.R.C.P.I., M.Sc., D.P.H. are a few of the letters that embellish his name. Dr. O'Meara's devotion to work is almost inhuman, and it is surprising to learn of his athletic prowess at school. At Clongowes Wood College he was captain of the Association football and hockey teams, and as Captain of the House also captained the Rugby and cricket teams. His one outward and visible relaxation in Trinity has been the "Hist." He has been a member of the Committee, and for some time played a prominent part in the internal politics of the Society.

That last infirmity of so many noble University minds, the profession of teaching, has overtaken Mr. F. B. Moynihan, who has obtained an educational appointment in Worksop. For several years Mr. Moynihan has been one of the most prominent athletes in Trinity. He excelled more especially in the long jump and in hockey. He is also a Moderator in Modern Languages, and a Gaelic enthusiast, though not one of the grim, fanatical variety. Of the argot of Gaelic his knowledge is such as few academic Gaels possess.

WEATHER FORECAST.

General Inference.—A depression off the Hebrides is almost stationary, but small secondaries are likely to move around its southern boundary north-eastward across the British Isles. Weather will be mainly fair generally, but occasional rain is likely in the West and North.

North-West, North-East, South-East and South-West Ireland.—Moderate southerly or south-westerly winds; cloudy, with brighter intervals, but occasional rain; rather warm on coast; warm inland.

Irish Sea and St. George's Channel.—Moderate south-westerly winds: mainly fair, but occasional rain locally; local mist or fog early and late; sea moderate.

THE EGYPT SALVAGERS

CAPTAIN'S SAFE HAULED UP.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
BREST, Friday.

The salvagers of the liner Egypt to-day hauled up the captain's safe. It is expected that when it is opened documents relating to the stowage of the bullion will be discovered. The safe has been placed on board the salvage ship Artiglio and will be opened this afternoon in the presence of Admiral Stevenson and Commodore Quaglia, a director of the salvage company.

APPEAL TO BURGLARS.

MRS. HARVEY DU CROS ROBBED.

Burglars who broke into Longwood, the residence of Mrs. Harvey DuCros, in Bridge road, Maidenhead, early yesterday, took away a large quantity of silver, including a number of cups and other trophies, which the late Mr. Harvey DuCros won in motor races. Last night Mrs. DuCros made an appeal for the return of the cups and trophies won by her husband.

"They cannot be of great monetary value, but they are of great sentimental value to me," she said to a reporter.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

HOSPITAL FINANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I have received an appeal from a hospital, requesting assistance in collecting money for an extension of its buildings and for reducing its overdraft of several thousands. I think it is time that public authority should control hospital extension in Dublin. There are twenty-one voluntary hospitals of a general nature serving the interests of the working classes in Dublin, many with huge debts. I notice that seven in recent years have extended their buildings, notwithstanding large overdrafts. No business firm would seek to extend their premises when, year after year, they have large losses.

That leads to another point. I find that some of the overdrafts are caused by large investments. The banks lending money at a low rate of interest, and the investment returning five per cent., a profit is made which is of real value when sufficiently large; but this makes the overdraft very large and alarming to the public, which does not know what is happening. Dublin has been said to be over-hospitalled. Can there not be a Joint Hospital Board to control extensions, to coordinate efforts, so that patients may be transferred where there is room for them, and to promote general efficiency by such methods as will share the use and cost of expensive equipment among several hospitals?

I would like to give every hospital all the help I can, and, as a proposed amalgamation of ten hospitals failed, could not a statutory board be appointed, similar to the Hospital Sunday Fund Board, which would co-ordinate action in the general interests of the public as well as the patients? At the same time balance sheets would give a fair knowledge of the position of every hospital without concealing assets. I know of no hospital that is not highly efficient; but the subscribing public is anxious to make effective use of its gifts, and I consider that there is serious need of a Joint Board of Control.—Yours, etc.,

FREE STATE EGGS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—As a delegate to the World's Poultry Congress a few weeks ago, I was much interested in your leading article on Free State eggs and also in the letter addressed to you by Mr. B. McKiernan, the salient points of which are sound. When Mr. McKiernan advocates the scrapping of that part of the British Eggs Act which classifies Irish Free State eggs as "foreign" he hits the nail on the head. Under this part of the Act Free State eggs intended for the British market require to be stamped; every egg must bear the words "Irish Free State" marked with indelible ink. In days gone by most of us engaged in the trade would have welcomed such an arrangement, but unfortunately, under existing conditions, it hinders instead of helping this important industry. I do not, however, agree with Mr. McKiernan when he says that English provision dealers can adulterate cases of Irish eggs with cheaper grades of foreign eggs. The stamping of eggs was introduced in order to put a stop to the mixing of stale or inferior eggs from one country with good eggs from another country, and in this respect the effect desired has been accomplished.

The real trouble, so far as the Irish Free State is concerned, is this: Ireland exports very large quantities of eggs to Great Britain in the spring and early summer, at a time when Irish eggs are most suitable for cold storing. Many thousands of cases are put into cold store, and kept for six months. These eggs are then taken out and sold in large quantities as "new laid," often without even being re-tested. Every egg bears the brand "Irish Free State." The net result is that housewives make the discovery that our eggs are not good, and, having made this discovery once, they are slow to try again. Hence it is that in London, and many of the large towns in England, Irish Free State eggs are not even displayed for sale in many of the larger and more progressive shops. On being asked why he did not stock Irish Free State eggs, a prominent Irishman engaged in the trade in London said that the London people would not buy Irish eggs, and that there was no use in stocking them. Incidentally, this same Irishman was selling eggs from nearly every other country.

During the time of the World's Poultry Congress a buyer of eggs called at the stall controlled by the Northern Ireland Ministry of Agriculture, and, having examined their exhibits, said that he wanted cheaper eggs. The official in charge recommended him to go to the Irish Free State stall. When I asked him why he did this, he said: "Is it not better to send him there than to some of our Continental rivals?" The Northern representative was right. At the same time it is very humiliating to a delegate from the Free State to find that Irish Free State eggs occupy a third-rate position and command a third-rate price.

The exhibits from this country compared favourably with the best exhibit in the Show, and the taste displayed reflected the highest credit on the officials in charge and on everyone connected with our Department of Agriculture. Nevertheless, the value of Free State eggs continues to be, roughly, 2s. per 120 below that of English or Northern Ireland eggs. It is no wonder that the revenue from this great industry is so small in comparison with that of other countries. The loss to the producer may be put at about one-seventh, due to the operation of that part of the British Eggs Act which classifies our eggs as "foreign." The case for putting Irish Free State eggs on the same footing with British and Northern Ireland eggs is so strong that the Imperial Conference could not lightly turn it down.—Yours, etc.,

THE AMERICA CUP DEFENDER.

WHY ENTERPRISE WAS SELECTED.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
NEW YORK, Friday.

Commenting on the selection of the Enterprise as the yacht to defend the America Cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V., Mr. G. Cormack, Secretary of the New York Yacht Club, the defenders of the Cup, and a member of the Defence Committee, said:—"We came to the conclusion that Enterprise was the most dependable boat of the four in all kinds of weather. The Boston sloop Yankee was faster in heavier weather, and Weetamoe stood up well in light airs, but neither of those two boats seemed sufficiently reliable to beat Shamrock V. in any kind of weather.

"Enterprise had survived tests under all manner of conditions. In the two tests that were completed the Enterprise beat Weetamoe in light sailing, and then went out and bettered a twenty-nine-year-old 'record' in heavy weather. Yankee made faster time than the Enterprise, but the latter distinctly manifested her light weather superiority the day before the selection was made. It was too bad that a boat as fast as Yankee should have to be passed over in the selection of the Cup defender, but Shamrock is known to be remarkably fast in light airs."

EXPORT OF MEAT.

NEW FREE STATE ACT IN OPERATION.

An allegation was made by Mr. S. G. Fisher (Corporation of the City of London) at the Sanitary Inspectors' Association Conference at Ilfracombe on Thursday that "the imports of meat from foreign countries in a frozen condition were carried out under hygienic conditions, but with regard to the imports from Ireland there was room for improvement."

Our representative was informed by an official of the Free State Department of Agriculture that, "if there was anything in that statement at any time, it is no longer true."

"From the first of this month," he went on to say, "the very severest measures controlling meat exports exist in the Free State, and, although the Act only came into force on Monday, it is already working satisfactorily."

The Act provides that "all beef and veal, mutton and lamb, fresh pork and the offals of cattle, sheep and pigs exported from the Irish Free State will be guaranteed sound and in good condition by means of a Government stamp indicating that the meat has been passed by a veterinary inspector of the Department of Agriculture."

AMERICAN ESTATE OF 4,000,000 DOLLARS.

COUNTY DUBLIN CLAIMANTS.

The discovery in a disused willow-pattern teapot, which stood on a dresser in a house in the Tallaght district of County Dublin, of a letter from an American relative has laid the foundation of a claim made by a number of Dublin City and County residents to a fortune accumulated in the United States of America by a man of Irish descent. His name was William Jefferson Doyle. He lived in Farmer City, Illinois, and died in 1923, leaving a fortune of the estimated value of four million dollars. Doyle, who was unmarried, had a brother named Thomas Hugh Doyle, and a sister, Mary Caroline, both of whom predeceased him. Thomas Hugh died a bachelor. Mary Caroline had married, but left no children, and her husband, too, had predeceased his millionaire brother-in-law.

William Jefferson Doyle having died without making a will, the disposal of his fortune became the subject of investigation by the American Courts. A large number of claimants to his estate came forward, and their claims, having been heard, the court charged with the decision of the matter ultimately made a decree declaring a number of descendants of three sisters of a John Doyle, who emigrated to America from Rathfriland, County Down, entitled to the deceased millionaire's estate. They claimed that one of the sisters, Elizabeth, married John Bell, that another, Nancy, married Charles Brown, and that the third, Mary, married Charles Veage. They relied for the upholding of their claim on the assertion that William Jefferson Doyle was the son of this John Doyle who emigrated from Rathfriland.

The finding of the old letter in the willow-pattern teapot led to the claim of the descendants of the County Down Doyles being challenged. The discovery was made by Mrs. Ellen Metcalfe, of Oldcourt, Tallaght, County Dublin. The letter was written to her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunne by a brother, John Doyle, who emigrated to America about 1830 or 1832. He had two brothers, Alexander and William, and a sister, Elizabeth. Two other brothers had died in infancy. Alexander joined the British Army, and went to India, where he died. William married, and resided in the Glencullen district, where he died in 1903, leaving three children. Elizabeth married John Dunne, a small farmer and road contractor, who lived in the Rathfarnham district. They had eleven children. It is the three children of William Doyle and the fourteen children and grandchildren of Mrs. Elizabeth Dunne who are now laying claim to the millions of William Jefferson Doyle, of Farmer City, asserting that he was the son of John Doyle, of Rathfarnham, of whose brother and sister they are the descendants.

After the discovery of the teapot letter a motion was made in the American Courts to have the decree in favour of the County Down people varied, and a commission issued to take evidence in Ireland in support of the Dublin and Down people. Sittings took place in Dublin and Rathfriland in July and August last, and a large number of witnesses were examined, and this evidence will be laid before the Court in America. The result is awaited by the claimants in Northern Ireland and the Free State.

A FREE STATE OFFICER'S DEATH.

Dealing with the death of Captain Patrick Ryan, of the Irish Free State Army Reserve, at his home, near Newbridge, County Kildare, a London newspaper has described it as mysterious. The suggestion has also been made that the body should be exhumed for the purpose of inquiry into the cause of death. Inquiries made by our representative yesterday go to show that the police and military authorities are satisfied that death was due to natural causes. Under the circumstances no exhumation order has been, or is likely to be, sought.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS AT LIVERPOOL.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.
LIVERPOOL, Friday.

To-night there began at St. George's Hall the International Congress of Catholic Seamen, a movement but a few years old, but full of significance for those who follow the calling of the sea throughout the world. Although it was only originated in 1925, springing from the enthusiasm of Canon Bernard, of Bessin, Cherbourg, its ramifications extend to every country where ships sail, doing good work in dealing with the problems of the sailor landing in foreign ports. A good deal will be related at the conference of the work which loyal supporters are doing, and much, too, of the hopes and visions of those who are anxious to extend the activities of the organisation, which has for its motto: The Apostleship of the Sea.

OPENING OF THE CONGRESS.

Representatives of many countries were present to-night at an informal reception which marked the opening of the congress. Two business sessions are to be held to-morrow, at which the inner workings of the movement will be under review, to be followed by a concert at the Catholic Seamen's Club. Sunday will be a day of devotion and demonstration. Besides High Mass at St. Nicholas' Pro-Cathedral, at which Monsignor Chaptal, Bishop Auxiliary of Paris, will officiate and the Archbishop of Edinburgh will preach, a number of services are to be held in various churches for seamen from different countries, at which clergy will speak to them in their own tongue.

TO-MORROW'S MEETING.

Archbishop Downey is to preside at the meeting in the evening, at which the speakers will be Archbishop McDonald (Edinburgh), Right Rev. Bishop Barrett (Plymouth), Right Rev. Bishop Chaptal (Paris), Admiral Sir Edward Charlton, K.C.B.; Dr. W. H. Atherton (Montreal), the Rev. Luis Brugada (Spain), the Rev. H. A. Reinhold (Germany), and Mr. Arthur Gannon, Organising Secretary.

Monday is reserved for a series of tours around the docks and elsewhere, with a concluding reception in the evening to all the delegates by the Lord Mayor of Liverpool at the Town Hall.

PATENTS AND TRADE MARKS.

STATISTICS FOR AUGUST.

The following statistics for the month of August last relating to patents and trade marks have been issued by the Controller, Industrial and Commercial Property Registration Office, Dublin:—

TRADE MARKS AND DESIGNS' BRANCH.

Irish Free State	10— 64
Applications accepted and advertised	82
Trade Marks registered	71
Applications for registration of new Designs received:—
Foreign	1
Irish Free State	1 — 2

The Patent and Trade Mark Journals for August contain abridged descriptions of inventions which fall into fifteen different classes. Artificial silk continues to be strongly represented, and specifications dealing with this subject in the names of Courtaulds, Ltd., and British Celanese, Ltd., have been accepted during the month.

The heating of the interior of motor vehicles is a problem which has presented unexpected difficulties; the usual method of heating by means of the exhaust gases leaves much to be desired, the regulation of the heat being unsatisfactory. Two Belfast inventors propose to solve the problem by utilising the cooling water. A heating radiator installed in the interior of the car is coupled in parallel with the cooling system, by-pass valves being used to control the heat supplied to the interior. A small tank heated by the exhaust pipe is used to supply extra heat to the water passing to the heating radiator.

Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., have had a specification accepted dealing with transmitting aerials.

The number of applications for registration of trade marks during the month shows that the average is being well maintained.

IRISH V.C. COLONEL RETIRES.

Colonel (Honorary Brigadier-General) E. W. Costello, V.C., it is announced in the London Gazette last night, retires on ceasing to command the Cambridge University Contingent, Senior Division, O.T.C., as from May 15, 1930. A member of an Irish family, born in 1873 in India, he won the V.C. while serving with the Indian Staff Corps on the night of July 26th, 1897, at the Malakand. He brought in a lance-havildar who was lying sixty yards away in open ground which was over-run with swordsmen and swept by heavy fire. During the European war he served in Mesopotamia, was six times mentioned in despatches, and was awarded the D.S.O. in August, 1917.

WATER CARNIVAL AT KINGSTOWN.

In our advertisement columns to-day particulars are given of the next of the series of water galas promoted by the Dun Laoghaire Development Committee. The event will be held at the Dolphins, East Pier, to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon from 3.30 o'clock p.m. onwards. The competitions will include swimming, diving, water polo, and a ladies' fancy dress swimming race. A musical programme will be provided by the Civic Guard Depot Band. The extended scheme of electric fairyland illuminations along the sea front and piers and in the park and beach gardens is attracting huge crowds of promenaders nightly.

BRAY DISTRICT COURT.

At Bray District Court yesterday, before Mr. Price, D.J.,

Guard McDonald charged Samuel Saunders, S.C.R., Dublin, with dangerous driving.

The Guard said he was on point duty at Quinsborough road corner, Bray. Defendant drove down the Main street and signified his intention of turning down the Quinsborough road. However, instead of applying the brake, he stepped on the accelerator, with the result that he was unable to take the turn and ran up on the footpath outside the Royal Hotel.

The defendant said he only made a slight mistake, but did not think that he was driving dangerously.

The defendant was cautioned.

Sergeant Otwill charged George McCarthy, 33 The Coombe, and Richard Fox, S.C.R., with being drunk and disorderly.

The sergeant said he found the two defendants fighting in the Main street. They were both drunk.

Fox said that he came to Bray with McCarthy to look for work, and met a friend who gave them a few drinks. McCarthy started the row.

McCarthy did not appear.

The Justice fined Fox £2 and sentenced McCarthy to one month's hard labour.

KILKENNY HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The quality and the number of exhibits at the annual show of the Kilkenny Horticultural Society, which was held in the Courthouse, Kilkenny, yesterday, was remarkably good, considering the very bad season.

The judges highly praised the standard of the exhibits.

KILDARE HUNT SHOW.

THE FURNESS CUP WINNER.

"PROBABLY THE BEST BROOD MARE ALIVE."

The forty-second annual show of the County Kildare Hunt was held at Punchestown, Naas, yesterday, under the most favourable auspices. The weather was excellent and the attendance was large.

The entries were slightly under the total for last year, but this was amply made up for in the quality of the animals exhibited. The yearlings and two years olds were up to the average, and in the brood mare classes many splendid animals were shown. The children's classes were well patronised, and there was the usual keen competition which gave the judges some trouble.

The jumping events, for which there was a total of 39 entries, were very interesting, particularly the children's pony jumping competition, for which there was a very strong entry. This event was won by a Dublin boy, Master Thomas Duffy, of Riversdale, Finglas, who came in for hearty applause for his splendid performance.

The principal prize of the day, the Furness Cup, for the best hunter brood mare in the show, was won for the second time in succession by Mr. P. Malone, of Sandymount House, Naas, with his thirteen-year-old mare by Standard Bearer, of which one of the judges said that she was probably the best brood mare alive to-day.

LAW REPORTS.

SEQUEL TO A LOAN.

CO. LONGFORD MAN'S ACTION.

(BEFORE THE MASTER OF THE HIGH COURT.)

At Dublin Castle yesterday, in the case of Heslin against Kenny, an application to have the hearing of a summary summons in the matter adjourned for a fortnight was granted.

Mr. R. S. Hogan (instructed by Mr. P. J. Magan), who appeared for Peter Heslin, Granard, Co. Longford, the plaintiff, said that the summons was instituted for the recovery of £899 19s. 3d. which the plaintiff said was due to him on foot of money which he had lent to the defendant, Joseph M. F. Kenny, Edenvale, Longford, who is a doctor practising in Co. Longford. The previous day, however, an affidavit had been received from the defendant, who did not deny that the money was lent to him by the plaintiff; but he was going to plead the statute of limitations. In these circumstances counsel applied for a fortnight's adjournment.

The Master—How long has the loan been running?

Mr. Hogan—Since 1912.

Mr. J. Reidy (instructed by Messrs. Downes and Co.), who appeared for the defendant, did not oppose the application.

Mr. Hogan—An adjournment will not do the defendant any harm.

The hearing of the case was adjourned accordingly.

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING OF SCHOOL.

APPLICATION FOR DISCOVERY OF DOCUMENTS.

In the matter of Mr. Timothy Higgins, building contractor, Four Mile House, Co. Roscommon, plaintiff, and the Very Rev. Thomas Lavin, P.P., defendant.

Mr. R. S. Hogan (instructed by Mr. F. J. Callery), for the plaintiff, applied for an order for the discovery of documents.

The summons was for the recovery of £430, balance due on foot of a contract. The plaintiff's case was that he entered into a contract with the defendant for the erection of a new national school at Clashaganny, Co. Roscommon, at £1,300; that portion of the contract price had been paid, and that the balance of £430 still remained due.

The defendant's case was that the contract price was £900, and that it had been paid.

Mr. Louis C. O'Doherty (instructed by Mr. M. J. Neilan), for the defendant, consented to the order for discovery.

The Master made the order sought for.

RENT OF KINGSTOWN PREMISES

In the case of Ring v. Coghlan,

Mr. Joseph Geraghty (instructed by Messrs. Peart and Dawson) applied on behalf of the plaintiff for judgment in the action which had been brought against the defendant for rent alleged to be due by him with respect to the premises, No. 58 Mulgrave street, Kingstown, in his occupation. The premises, it appeared, had been let to the defendant at a monthly rent of £4 15s. Mr. Geraghty stated that the amount of arrears of rent now due amounted to £50 odd.

A representative of Messrs. Little, O hUadhaigh, and Proud, solicitors (for the defendant), stated that the defendant was prepared to pay £20 down and the balance by monthly instalments.

The Master granted the application, with a stay of execution, on condition that £20 be paid by the defendant forthwith, and the balance by instalments before January 31 next, together with seven guineas costs.

THE CORK HARBOUR SCHEME.

Mr. J. N. Mullan, Vice-President of the Ireland Corporation, and representative of Warren Brothers, of Boston, and the Raymond Concrete Pile Company, of New York, left Dublin on Thursday night on the mail boat for London, and will sail to-day for the United States to attend an International conference, to be held on October 6th in Washington.

Mr. Mullan expects to return before the end of October so as to discuss further the harbour development at Cork, which the Harbour Board there is turning over to a committee who will discuss the matter with the Minister of Industry and Commerce.

NOW.. this new gravy preparation perfects the flavour of meat dishes

ADDS TO THEIR FOOD VALUE

Every woman who prides herself on her cooking knows just how much difference a good gravy preparation makes to the success of her roasts . . . her stews . . . her soups!

But if you want a gravy preparation different from any you've ever used — one that actually gives real nourishment . . . one that contains concentrated meat extract — try Stok!

The next time you make a stew or want to use up something "left-over," add a little of this delicious preparation to the dish. Watch how it colours and thickens at the same time. Notice the appetizing meaty flavour it gives to food — a flavour full of the richness of the finest meat stock!

Ten famous cookery experts helped to formulate Stok. Benefit by their experience of cooking and buy a packet today. Once you've tried it, you'll never be without it again! Your grocer has Stok — 2½d. and 7½d., or send for it to the Aintree Company Ltd., North John Street, Liverpool.

SHANKILL DISTRICT COURT.

At the Shankill District Court, before District Justice Reddin, Peter Flynn, no fixed address, was charged in custody with a series of burglaries.

He was charged with breaking into the house of William R. Armstrong, barrister-at-law, St. Anne's, Killiney, on August 22 and stealing a gold watch, a lady's gold bangle, a gold watch chain, a sovereign purse, a Chinese ornament, a Masonic ornament, two ounces of tobacco, and twenty cigarettes—value £40.

There were also charges of having stolen on August 25 a hat and about 5s. from the house of Richard Stokes, St. Michael's, Sarsfield road, Inchicore; with having stolen £8 6s. cash from the house of Harold Mellon, Butterfield, Rathfarnham, on July 21; and on July 29 with stealing articles to the value of £1 5s. from the house of Michael J. Hogan, St. Laurence, Chapelizod, and with stealing 2s. 6d. from the house of Richard Bruton.

The defendant admitted the charges, and said that he hoped he would get work when he came out of jail, as he found that an honest life was better than a life of crime. A life of crime was not worth living.

Mr. Reddin said that the sentiments expressed by the prisoner should have affected him before he committed the crimes. He sentenced Flynn to ten months' hard labour.

NEWS SUMMARY

IRELAND.

The annual Show of the County Kildare Hunt yesterday, at Punchestown, was very successful and attracted a large attendance.—(Page 5.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

By a majority of nearly two to one the Trades Union Congress, at Nottingham yesterday, decided in favour of extension and development of social services in preference to direct State family allowances to mothers.—(Page 7.)

The ten stages of child laughter were dealt with in an address at the British Association's Conference. Mr. Bernard Shaw listened to a lecture on agriculture in South Africa, but did not address the gathering.—(Page 4.)

A vigorous plea was made for the retention of safeguarding in the dyestuffs industry during a discussion, in which well-known chemists took part, at the British Association's Conference yesterday.—(Page 7.)

ABROAD

The President of the Argentine has delegated his powers to the Vice-President and proclaimed martial law in Buenos Aires, where anti-Government demonstrations have taken place.—(Page 7.)

The American Red Cross intimates that 1,000 people are dead, 2,500 injured, and 29,000 homeless as the result of the hurricane in Santo Domingo, West Indies.—(Page 7.)

The Viceroy of India, in a letter replying to the peace-makers, states that their terms are impossible.—(Page 7.)

SPORTING

At Manchester yesterday Lindos Ojos won the Manchester Autumn Breeders' Foal Plate.—(Page 10.)

At Folkestone Smoked Salmon won the Hardinge Handicap Plate.—(Page 10.)

FINANCIAL.

London Stock Markets were generally stronger after early weakness. Rails were a firm spot.—(Page 12.)

The Treasury bill rate was 1-16 per cent. higher than last week, and discount rates were consequently firmer. There was no change in the low rate for overnight money. The Bank received £359,374 in sovereigns from abroad, sold £8,739 in bar gold, and exported 4,000 sovereigns.—(Page 12.)

Dublin Market was firm. Bank Stock rose further, and Courtaulds and Unilevers advanced.—(Page 12.)

The closing was strong on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday.—(Page 8.)

The Coming Boy.

During recent years a school of science has devoted itself, with increasing earnestness, to the cult of infancy. Our fathers were content that their young children should be healthy, happy and moderately industrious. They would have found something distasteful, if not indecent, in the microscopic study of little Betty's dawning intelligence. The new psychology has created a new outlook, and to-day Betty, no longer a creature of idyllic innocence, has become a little Sphinx. Her character and destiny are pre-determined, save in so far as the new psychology—which seems to have replaced theology as the queen of the sciences—can mitigate the ante-natal bad and can develop the ante-natal good. Thus childhood's early years become the crucial years of a man's existence, and it seems that—like the baby in the old picture, for whom the policeman stopped the whole traffic of Piccadilly—the child and his alleged problems are dominating the present transactions of the British Association. On Thursday and yesterday a variety of learned papers discussed the significance, usually sinister, of his dreams and the import, possibly not less sinister, of his "Goo!" The fears which distress adults, says Dr. Hadfield, are a revival of infantile fears, and sexual perversions are due to tendencies of the pre-school period. Such fears and tendencies can be eliminated by treatment, and the new psychologists seem to be in happy agreement concerning the proper treatment. It may be summarised not unfairly, as we think, in the statement that a wilful child—wilful, of course, in the purged, scientific sense—must have his way. The new psychology seems to demand the complete dethronement of the parent and the triumphant enthronement of the child. Dr. Blatz, of Toronto, says that "Spare the rod and spoil the child" is "one of the most diabolical rules ever introduced into child-training." "Parents," he adds, "should be seen and not heard; they should get out of the way of their children." They are an actual obstacle to the aim which Professor Olive Wheeler describes as "the full and harmonious emotional development of modern youth."

From the psychological heights of Bristol our mind relapses into a profane memory. Once, in the presence of that witty County Court Judge, Richard Adams, comment was made on the success of men from a small district of County Cork. A dozen of them, in a single generation, had become leaders in the learned professions and in commerce. "I can tell you the reason," said Judge Adams. "In that district, when a boy's eighteenth birthday comes, his father takes him to the front door, and gives him a loaf of bread, a map of Ireland, and a kick on the posterior—and within ten years the boy has a house in Merrion square." What a gap yawns between that brutal empiricism and the tender subtleties of the new psychology, and how fortunate are the youth of our post-Freudian time! Nevertheless, middle age does not part easily with its prejudices, and some doubts intrude. After all, the British Empire was not ill-served by its youth in the days before the new revelation. They obeyed their parents and were unaware of their rights. They extended the bounds of Empire, and a very big number of them, not knowing the psychological value of life, threw it away in the Great War. Our doubt is if the coming infancy will be so useful, in a practical, unscientific way, to the British Empire, whose urgent problems, unhappily, are not merely psychological. When the single child of eliminated parents has reached manhood with a profound knowledge of his complexes and a profound contempt for exploded traditions of duty and discipline, will he be able, like his father, to stand up to certain facts that, despite the psychologists, will continue to be inexorable? It will be a serious matter if, after all, County Cork was right and the downfall of the British Empire puts Bristol in the wrong. Moreover, we find a certain coldness in the creed of complexes, and wonder if, at life's supreme moment, it will answer Sir William Jones's test—

> On parent knees, a naked, new-born child,
> Weeping, thou sat'st whilst all around thee smiled.
> So live that, sinking in thy last, long sleep,
> Calm thou mays't smile while all around thee weep.

Problems for Geneva.

Both the Council and the Assembly of the League of Nations will meet in Geneva next week. From the point of view of the Irish Free State, the most important item on the agenda will be the election of three new States to non-permanent seats on the Council; for Mr. McGilligan proposes to offer the Irish Dominion as a candidate, although he has refused to allow it to go forward for election as a member of the British Commonwealth group. The Free State's most formidable competitor for one of the vacant seats will be China. From the broader standpoint of European politics, the most interesting feature of the next few weeks' discussions will be M. Briand's proposal for a United States of Europe. The French Government is determined, by hook or by crook, to bring about some kind of European federation. M. Briand and his colleagues are interested not so much in the ideal of a European brotherhood as in the security of the French Republic. They believe that France would be safer from foreign invasion if she could contrive a loose union of continental States, including, of course, the German Reich, while a general scaling down of tariffs would be of considerable assistance to her industries. There is nothing visionary about M. Briand's scheme. He is a master of Realpolitik, and the apparent Utopianism of his latest plan is based upon a very shrewd and entirely mundane conception of France's needs. No doubt, it will be discussed very thoroughly. Subcommittees even may be formed to investigate its details, but nothing will be done, because Geneva rarely does anything.

The League of Nations cannot take vital decisions. It has no effective sanctions behind its decrees, and the success of its work depends entirely on its ability to influence public opinion. To this extent the League is exceedingly useful, but as an executive body it is almost negligible. Apart from its lack of sanctions, it suffers through the absence of the United States of America, which has established a financial hegemony over continental Europe, and in some respects is in a position almost to dictate policy. If the Washington Government would enter the League, the whole situation would be changed. Instead of being a convenient venue for academic discussions, Geneva would become the executive capital of the civilised world. Its decisions would be respected by everybody; nations that subscribe to the League of Nations to-day merely as a matter of form would hasten to give it their active support, and the Covenant would assume the world importance with which its authors hoped to endow it. In the meanwhile, there is no chance of a change of mind at Washington, and the League must remain virtually impotent. None of the great Powers ever will be likely to consult it on any matter of national importance. Italy defied it over the Corfu incident. The Kellogg Pact was prepared and signed without any reference to the Council, and Poland took the law into her own hands when General Zeligowski "unofficially" annexed the Lithuanian city of Vilna to the Republic. While, therefore, the approaching discussions on M. Briand's scheme may be highly interesting, they will be nothing more. If the European Powers do not wish to combine, nothing that the League of Nations can do will affect their decision.

British Films.

Despite various measures, more or less efficacious, that have been taken for its relief, the British film trade is still in an unsatisfactory plight. In the first place, it suffers from lack of funds, and, as a result of this lack, British producers neither can enlist the constant services of popular actors nor produce sufficient films to capture and retain a market. The American combines, in the second place, exert a strangle-hold by their ownership of a great many picture houses throughout Great Britain—a position which allows them the final word in regard to the public's entertainment. In an attempt to break this strangle-hold, and to put up an effective challenge to the trans-Atlantic monopoly, a new British combine, embracing ten cinematograph firms, is being formed, with a capital of £1,500,000. It will be known as the Empire Building, Manufacturing and Kinema Corporation, and will concern itself with every department of the film trade from production to exhibition. In furtherance of this project it has acquired the control of firms for the manufacture of film stock, together with firms practised in the intricacies of distribution, and it proposes to erect a number of new houses all over England. With other activities the combine will devote itself to the production of multilingual talking pictures, in an effort to capture the bulk of the continental trade. Ultimately, of course, success will depend on the combine's ability to turn out good films, and so wealthy an interest will not be able to plead poverty in extenuation of its shortcomings. It is certain that Hollywood will not allow the challenge to pass unnoticed.

The Vatican Eleven.

An ancient and familiar anecdote tells how an Association football team from Belfast journeyed southwards to play a Dublin side and was victorious. Returning by train, the eleven were hailed at Portadown with an inquiry, "Who won?" "We did," replied the rejoicing Ulstermen, whereupon came the jubilant comment, "Man, but there will be gnashing of teeth in the Vatican to-night." We may doubt whether the athletic contests of Irishmen have so devastating a repercussion upon the Holy See, but recent news serves to show that the Vatican City is by no means regardless of the claims of sport. The new city is organising its own football team. Visions arise of high ecclesiastics, forgetful of their dignity and recovering their youth in a frenzied race along the wings or an elusive dribble up the centre of the field. Such visions, however, will not take shape as yet; for at present membership of the team is confined to the Vatican's lay citizens, and includes the younger employés, officials and gendarmes. The Pontifical Guard is eligible to "sign on," but the Swiss Guard, whose personnel does not possess the citizenship, must remain on the touch-line. A member of the famous Roma football team has been commissioned to train the Vatican eleven, which will belong to the Union of Italian teams, but will not play in international matches. The new movement, as we understand, receives the Pope's fullest sympathy, and its success is due largely to his encouragement.

LONDON LETTER

THE HURRICANE AT SANTO DOMINGO.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
FRIDAY NIGHT.

If the story that eight hundred people have been killed in the Santo Domingo hurricane, in Haiti, is correct, the death roll is the largest since the terrible hurricane of 1831, when some two thousand people lost their lives in Barbados. During the succeeding hundred years science has come to the aid of the people who live in such troubled districts, and there is now a great chain of observatories, with headquarters at Porto Rico. The approach of a hurricane is announced by a fall in the barometer. If the fall amounts to half an inch, it means that a violent hurricane is near at hand. As soon as the warning is received it is cabled to every island in the group, and the islanders do their utmost to prepare for trouble. The rich take refuge in their cellars, while the poor barricade their houses or dig themselves into the ground. It is related that there is always a central moment in a hurricane when absolute calm prevails. This is followed by a second attack, which completes the destruction of the houses and buildings already badly damaged in the first shock.

The Prince's Programme.

The Prince of Wales has decided that he will make no official or semi-official engagements for the remainder of the present month, since he intends to continue his holiday in preparation for the somewhat strenuous times which lie before him before he leaves for the Argentine next year. It is expected that the proceedings attendant on the Imperial Conference will add considerably to the Prince's heavy duties, since he will take part in a number of functions, both public and private. The Prince will not leave London for Buenos Aires until February, but it is said that nearly all his arrangements for the journey are completed. Probably he will travel in an ordinary liner rather than on a warship, since it is known that this somewhat informal method of travel is more to his taste. The Prince will stay in the Argentine for about three weeks, and during that period he will pay visits to places at some little distance from the capital.

London's Tramways.

A year or two ago London's tramways were falling into disrepute and the public was taking to the motor 'bus in preference, but since the beginning of this year there has been a great change, and the number of passengers carried by the tramways between January 1st and August 30th increased by 9,400,000—that is, by seven per cent. The officials of the tramway companies are satisfied that large numbers of the public were attracted back to the tramways when the cars were cushioned and cross-seats introduced, and consequently many further improvements are being considered. The cars are now swifter, better lighted and more comfortably fitted than they were ever before. Orders have been placed for nearly one hundred new cars, each of which will seat sixty-four persons.

The Conservative Party.

The Conservative Party organisation is arranging a tour of Canada for next July, in answer to a widely-expressed desire on the part of many Conservatives to visit the Dominion. The tour will occupy three weeks, and among the places visited will be Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and Ottawa. In addition, the bureau will rent an entire hotel at a famous Swiss winter sports resort for three weeks at Christmas time. This will be reserved for the exclusive use of members of Conservative associations and their friends.

The American Drought.

The financial editor of the Evening Standard is told by an acquaintance who has just returned from the section of the United States known as the "corn belt" that the ultimate effect of the recent drought upon American business conditions and upon the general purchasing power of the agricultural community will be infinitely worse than people in this country have yet realised.

Farmers are reported to have slaughtered millions of dollars' worth of valuable stock which they could not afford to feed, while others are offering sheep and hogs at prices which scarcely pay for the cost of marketing. Potatoes, cabbages and most of the fruit crops are shrivelled up. Thousands of farmers are not only hard up, but actually destitute; and but for the recently instituted Hoover relief stations many of them would be facing starvation.

Air Mail Services.

The suggestion put forward by the Civil Aviation section of the London Chamber of Commerce for the introduction of fast non-stop air mail services has been discussed already on several occasions. The advantages of such services, which afford very marked savings in time for mail to distant destinations, need no further emphasis, and the possibility of their establishment has been demonstrated strikingly by Captain Barnard's flights to Malta and to Tangier and back.

The suggestions of the Civil Aviation section have been received sympathetically by the Air Ministry, and it is understood that the Postmaster-General is also in agreement with their view. According to that view, the full benefit of high-speed air transmission will be secured, so far as mails are concerned, only when an extensive system of night air mail services is in operation, especially within distances of about 1,000 miles of the starting-point. The Standing Committee of the section will review the subject again at an early date, and it is to be hoped that their efforts will secure the early entry of this country into a field of aviation that is certain to be of the utmost importance in the future.

The Mansion House.

The famous Mansion House of the City of London will be renovated and much of it will be reconstructed next year at a cost approaching fifty thousand pounds. For nearly twenty years it has been asserted that the building was unfit for the residence of a Lord Mayor and his family, and attempts at improvement and repair have been made, but without any great success. One Lady Mayoress refused to live in the building until certain work had been undertaken, and remained at an hotel until it had been completed. The Mansion House will have to be closed during the renovation, and it is proposed that the new Lord Mayor and his Court shall take up residence at the Great Eastern Hotel—the only hotel of any size in the City with the requisite accommodation for a very big party. It is probable that Alderman W. P. Neal, the incoming Lord Mayor, will be lent one of the famous halls belonging to the City companies for the necessary routine work of his office.

DEAD PILOT ON MOUNTAIN TOP.

MISSING AEROPLANE FOUND.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
BERLIN, Friday.

The Austrian service aeroplane, which has been missing for several days, has been discovered to-day, with the dead pilot in the seat on a mountain top in the Bavarian Alps near Garmisch, Partenkirchen.

The machine has not been recovered as yet, as it is extremely difficult to get near it.

HURRICANE'S TOLL IN WEST INDIES.

PLIGHT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

THOUSANDS KILLED AND INJURED.

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED.

A MESSAGE from Washington states that martial law was declared in Santo Domingo City, Santo Domingo, West Indies, last night.

The estimates of the killed and injured in the recent hurricane vary considerably. The American Red Cross officials, however, state that 1,000 persons have been killed and 2,500 injured, while in Santo Domingo City 29,000 persons are homeless.

Reuter's Correspondent states that everywhere in the island he found houses in ruins and the natives drenched and miserable. He estimates that ninenty per cent. of the population are homeless.

In order to dispose of the dead, it has been decided to adopt a system of "mass cremation."

AMERICAN RED CROSS REPORT.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Friday.

According to reports received here by the American Red Cross officials, 1,000 persons have been killed and 2,500 have been injured in the hurricane that swept Santo Domingo yesterday. It is further stated that 4,700 homes have been destroyed, 200 have been damaged, and 29,000 persons are homeless in Santo Domingo city.

Two officers of the United States Marine Corps who flew to Santo Domingo from Haiti this afternoon have sent back a wireless message stating: "Conditions are unbelievable. Doctors, medicines and food are imperative. Instruct pilots to bring water and food for our own consumption also."

Doctors, nurses, medical supplies and food are accordingly being despatched by aeroplane from Haiti and by three steamers from San Juan to the stricken city.

Efforts are being made to penetrate into the interior of the country, and investigate conditions in the regions isolated by the storm.

ROADS IMPASSABLE.

Reuter's Special Correspondent to-day reached a point twenty-four miles beyond Azua, a port on the southern coast, on horseback, in an endeavour to make his way through to Santo Domingo city; but the road became impassable, and he had to turn back. Everywhere he found towns in ruins and natives, huddled together in ramshackle huts, drenched and miserable. It is already obvious that relief measures will be urgently needed in the interior of the island, as well as in Santo Domingo city, where at least 90 per cent. of the population is estimated to be homeless and faced with great privation. Many have taken refuge in the Colonial churches, which are among the sturdiest buildings in the island.

At the request of President Hoover the American Red Cross has taken charge of the relief work, and public subscriptions have been opened in many American cities.

"MASS CREMATION."

Although two days have passed since the hurricane, bodies are still being extracted from the ruins, and the work of disposing of the dead began to-day. At first an attempt was made to burn them, but it soon became evident that the task was hopeless, so a system of mass cremation was adopted to solve the urgent sanitary problem of getting rid of the bodies.

Among the public buildings totally or partially destroyed are the Presidential Palace the Chamber of Deputies, the Court of Appeals, the United States Legation and the offices of the water, light and telephone companies.

ALL EUROPEANS SAFE.

The State Department has received word that all Europeans in the city are safe.

The problem of landing supplies is very difficult. The Ozama River is in flood and is filled with wreckage, so that navigation is almost impossible, and the Customs' warehouses have been destroyed.

It was feared at one time that the storm might strike Cuba and Florida, but the United States Weather Bureau has announced that the storm has decreased in violence, and all danger to the mainland is over.

SPECTRE OF DISEASE AND HUNGER.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

SANTO DOMINGO, Friday.

The spectres of hunger and disease are appearing in Santo Domingo in consequence of the hurricane, and the authorities are facing a difficult situation. Urgent calls are being issued for medical supplies, food, etc. The city itself is isolated from the rest of the Republic. All estimates of the casualties and the material damage throughout the country are at present mere guesswork since the hurricane which struck the capital with such devastating fury must have wreaked similar, if not heavier, havoc in the interior.

There is not a single man or woman in the city who has not suffered either physically or materially from the storm. The natives' houses are completely razed to the ground, and the inhabitants are without light or water, while the shortage of food must become acute in a day or two. More than half the capital is a ruin.

The wind sometimes reached a velocity of 150 miles per hour. Roofs were lifted off buildings as if they had been fastened down with tin-tacks. The roof of the American Legation was torn off and the building was partly destroyed. Nothing is left of the great bridge across the Ozama River, and all the buildings of Pan-American Airways have been blown to pieces.

A CONFERENCE.

The President, Señor Trujillo, is now in conference with Major Cary I. Crockett, the representative of the Governor of Porto Rico; Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, who flew over the stricken area, and the American Minister, Mr. Charles B. Curtis.

So far as is known by actual count, 800 have been killed, but the number may prove to be even higher when the returns from the interior are received.

Major Crockett sent a message by wireless to Governor Roosevelt, to inform him that the American Minister and his staff were all safe, as were all the Europeans. The message added that, with three-fourths of the city virtually destroyed and much of the remainder damaged more or less, there was urgent need for physicians, medical supplies, tents, blankets and clothing, etc. Rations would be wanted for 50,000 to 100,000 persons, and funds from the Red Cross were badly needed.

HOW DOMINICA FARED.

LIME AND COCOA CROPS DESTROYED.

BARBADOS, Friday.

The damage done by the hurricane in the island of Dominica, British West Indies, is widespread, and the entire lime and cocoa crops have been destroyed. Extensive damage was done at Roseau, where the roofs of a number of houses were torn off. The peasants' houses throughout the island were flattened to the ground. Many vessels, including a coastal schooner and coastal motor launches, are believed to be lost. At present, however, there is no shortage of food or other supplies.

LEEWARD ISLANDS.

COLONIAL OFFICE REPORT.

The Colonial Office announced last night that a further report was received on Thursday from the Leeward Islands, to the effect that further news indicated considerable damage to the houses of peasants and labourers, for whom assistance was needed. The crops had been extensively damaged, and a small sailing vessel was reported lost. There was no shortage of foodstuffs or other supplies. The local telephonic and telegraphic installations had been affected, and messages were subject to delay. Some Government offices had suffered. Generally, however, the damage on this occasion was not by any means so extensive as in the case of the hurricane of 1928.

EX-KAISER'S LIBEL ACTION.

EDITOR ORDERED TO PAY FINE.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

BERLIN, Friday.

The ex-Kaiser has won his libel suit against Herr Ewald Mendel, editor of the democratic newspaper Morgenpost. Herr Mendel to-day was sentenced by the Berlin Court to pay a fine of £75, or go to jail for three months.

The suit was brought by the ex-Kaiser as the result of the publication of an article in the Morgenpost alleging that the ex-Kaiser had a large financial interest in Krupp's during the war, and that this was why he had not interfered when Krupp's supplied the army with inferior artillery material, thus drawing large profits, and indirectly causing the death of thousands of German soldiers.

PRELIMINARY OBJECTION.

At the outset the defence raised the objection that the ex-Kaiser's power of attorney was irregular, as he was only recognised as a Prussian Prince, and not as ex-Kaiser.

The Court decided that the power of attorney was legally in order, and that there was no doubt that the person who signed the document, "Wilhelm, Imperator, Rex," was identical with the person named as Prince Wilhelm of Prussia.

THE KRUPP MONOPOLY.

The proceedings then were continued by one of the solicitors for the defence, who referred to the monopoly of supplies of war material which Messrs. Krupp had held for a long period before the war, and which it had proved impossible to break. He pointed out that long before the German Army introduced modern artillery the French Army had been supplied with modern guns, and that similar weapons were constructed by the German armaments firm of Ehrhardt, but had been rejected by the General Staff, although their superiority over the Krupp guns had been known and although General Reichenau had spoken in favour of the Ehrhardt guns.

"The will of the Kaiser was decisive," said the solicitor, "and this is proof of the allegations that the ex-Kaiser acted in this manner because he was financially interested in Krupp's."

The solicitor added that half the property of the ex-Kaiser consisted of Krupp's Debentures, which he had inherited from his grandfather. He further stated that it was also Messrs. Krupp who financed the ex-Kaiser's famous trip to Palestine.

The solicitor refused to accept as witnesses the military experts named by the ex-Kaiser, because he considered them to be prejudiced.

The Court found for the ex-Kaiser as stated above.

EXAMINATION OF THE ANDREE REMAINS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

TROMSOE, Friday.

The Commission that is examining here the remains of the Andrée expedition states that no traces of the third explorer, Fraenkel, have been found. Strindberg's engagement ring that was found on his corpse helped to identify him. It was on the anniversary of Strindberg's birthday, September 4, that his corpse, wrapped in the Swedish flag, was sent back to his native land. Among the objects found, which number two hundred, are an anemometer, two chronometers made by Gullberg, of London; a case of mathematical instruments, a tape measure, cooking utensils, a basket containing sewing materials, small copper hooks, wire thread and clothes. Most of the objects were found in the canvas boat, in which the explorers had also carried as provisions the back of a bear, the bones of which were at first thought to be Fraenkel's. The Swedish Government has not yet decided when, and in what form, Andrée's diaries will be published.

THE DYESTUFFS INDUSTRY.

PLEA FOR RETENTION OF SAFEGUARDING.

BRITAIN'S SHARE OF WORLD TRADE.

Well known chemists took part in a long discussion at the British Association Conference at Bristol yesterday upon the present and the future position of the dyestuffs industry.

Professor A. G. Green, of Walton-on-Thames, said that since the absorption of the British Dyestuffs Corportion into Imperial Chemical Industries, in 1926, research staffs had been increased, new dyestuffs produced, and the whole position consolidated. He estimated that the disposal of the research organisations between 1921 and 1923 had resulted in a loss to the industry of between one and two million pounds. Britain to-day supplied over eleven per cent. of the world's requirements as against nine per cent. in 1925, while the shares of world trade absorbed by Germany and Switzerland had remained constant, and those of France had decreased.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

In tonnage Britain's improvement was even greater, production having increased from 14,000 tons in 1926 to nearly 25,000 tons in 1929.

The existing productive capacity of England, Germany, France, Switzerland, America and Italy was probably to-day at least twice the world's requirements, but the consumptive capacity of the world, particularly in China and India, was capable of enormous expansion.

"I am strongly of the opinion," said Professor Green, "that the industry has not yet reached a position when further protection is unnecessary.

"The industry gives employment to about eleven thousand working people, and is essential to our national security in war and peace.

"It cannot be said with truth that our textile industries have suffered. I think the reverse is the case.

"It seems to me inconceivable that such an industry should be allowed to languish or be exposed to the full competition of Germany and America. It seems to me that a further period of State assistance is necessary to establish the position already won.

"Whether it should be by importation under licence or the imposition of an import duty is open to discussion, but it would be little short of disastrous if the present Act were allowed to lapse next year, and our markets left open to unrestricted imports.

PLEA FOR EXTENSION.

"It is essential that the Act should be extended for a sufficient time to allow for the consideration of more permanent legislation. This period might perhaps be five years. As a permanent measure I am inclined to favour an import duty.

"If as part of some general scheme of Imperial preference, or free trade within the Empire, an import duty could be imposed, it would secure to our industry a predominant position in some of the most important markets of the world, without prejudice to the textile trades, but no hiatus should be allowed to occur between the present régime and further protective measures."

Professor J. S. Thorpe, London, said: "No greater mistake can be made than to suppose that dyestuff chemistry or organic chemistry is played out. In the world of dyestuff chemistry alone there is a whole field of undiscovered country which has to be worked, and where many important discoveries await the research chemist. In future many processes and dyestuffs will become obsolete, new fibres requiring new methods, and new dyes will be put forward. In order, therefore, that every chance should be given to enable this country to get abreast of foreign competitors, an extension of the Dyestuffs Act should be granted."

A STRIKING DEFENCE.

Mr. J. Mort , Chairman of Scottish Dyes, and a director of the British Dyestuffs Corporation, in a striking defence of the British dyestuff industry, declared that in the past eight years there has been in the dyestuff industry of this country more enterprise, more research, more proved ability, more great achievement in the discovery of new materials and methods, than in the whole of the textile industry in the past eighty years.

Of one hundred colours made and sold by Scottish Dyes, forty-seven were new ones. The home industry had been of enormous benefit in putting a check on excessive prices from abroad.

"Before the war," said Mr. Morton, "we were, as far as dyes were concerned, a contented, spoon-fed people, sitting on German knees.

"In 1914 we knew nothing of the chemistry of dyes. If the textile industry had made similar efforts, Lancashire today would not be telling the tale of woe they heard.

"Free trader as I have always been," Mr. Morton declared, "my strong recommendation is for the renewal of the Act. If our ports were open indiscriminately, a distinct attempt would be made to capture the market in most colours.

"German manufacturers would send them in at prices far below their economic value. British manufacturers would have to close down the most scientifically advanced sections of the trade.

"The consequence would be the cancellation of research and the maiming of further progress. Then prices would rise by virtue of the monopoly which would have been established."

Sir William Pope discounted the popular notion that the day of revolutionary discoveries in chemistry was passed. "It can confidently be anticipated," he said, "that in the future, as during the past few years, British chemists will make further and greater contributions to the development of the manufacturing of coal tar colours and of several other great branches of the chemical industry in the country."

Sir Joseph Turner revealed that a few months before the war the Austrian Government arranged to purchase the whole of the picric acid output of this country. A contract was entered into, and when war broke out the first consignment was actually on its way through Germany to Austria. The British Government, of course, immediately put an embargo on further exports.

Sir Joseph also advocated the abolition of the Dyestuff Act. "We have had ten years to prepare for the battle, and it is time that we were allowed to go into the field and have a free fight. If we fail, we can consider the Act again."

Mr. C. J. T. Cronshaw (Manchester) computed that British and German firms spent £40,000 a year on patents protection in this country alone.

PART OF A CASTLE

BOUGHT BY MR. HEARST.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Friday.

The "Great Chamber," or dining-room, of Gilling Castle, Yorkshire, said to be one of the best extant examples of Elizabethan architecture and decoration, has been purchased by Mr. W. R. Hearst from Mr. Arthur S. Vernay, of London and New York. The room will be dismantled and re-erected in the old Norman castle of St. Donat, South Wales, which Mr. Hearst purchased five years ago. It is understood that Mr. Hearst paid more than £20,000 for the room.

"IMPOSSIBLE" DEMANDS.

LORD IRWIN AND PEACE MOVE.

WHY THE EFFORT FAILED.

POLICE RAID ON BILASHI.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

POONA, Friday.

The correspondence connected with the abortive peace negotiations between the Viceroy, Lord Irwin, the intermediaries, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, and Mr. Jayakar, and the leaders of the civil disobedience movement, which is published here to-day, makes melancholy reading.

After a conference at Yerodi Jail, at which Mr. Gandhi, Pandit Motilal Nehru, Pandit Jahawarlal Nehru, Mr. Vallabhai Patel, Mrs. Naidu, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, and Mr. Jayakar, were present, the imprisoned leaders of the civil disobedience movement gave a letter to the intermediaries, with permission to show it to the Viceroy.

In this letter the Nationalist leaders laid down their peace terms, declaring, first of all, that no solution would be satisfactory unless it were recognised that India had the right to secede from the British Empire. They demanded as indispensable for India a complete National Government responsible to the people, the Government to have control of the forces as well as full economic control.

ATTITUDE TO BRITISH CLAIMS.

The Nationalist leaders also claimed the right to refer to an independent tribunal such British claims and concessions—including the Indian public debt—as seemed to them unjust.

If their terms were acceptable to the British Government, the Nationalist leaders were prepared to call off civil disobedience. Picketing of the foreign cloth and liquor shops would continue, as well as the illicit manufacture of salt, but they would not organise any more raids on salt dépôts.

The leaders demanded that political prisoners who have not been found guilty of violence should be released, and their confiscated property should be restored, and any fines that have been paid should be refunded. Village officers who had resigned and were dismissed should be reinstated if they so desired. These demands were made applicable to prisoners taken in the non co-operation period, 1920-1921.

The Nationalists demanded that all the special Ordinances should be repealed, and that the composition of the Round-table Conference on Indian reforms, as well as the representation of India on it, should only be decided after a satisfactory settlement of the above-mentioned demands, which are described as "preliminaries."

THE VICEROY'S REPLY.

Mr. Jayakar took this letter to the Viceroy. Afterwards he and Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru conferred with Lord Irwin and the members of the Executive Council.

The Viceroy subsequently gave the two intermediaries a letter to be shown to the Nationalist leaders.

The Viceroy, in the course of his letter, said that Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and Mr. Jayakar had not been assisted by the letter of the Nationalist leaders, in view of its tone and its blank refusal to recognise the grave injury that was being done to the country by the civil disobedience movement. He declared that no useful purpose would be served by any attempt to deal with the suggestions in detail. The discussion of the leaders' proposals was impossible.

The Viceroy, however, added that, if the civil disobedience movement were called off, the Ordinances would be withdrawn. He was unable to give an assurance that all political prisoners not guilty of violence should be released, although he would recommend the local Governments sympathetically to consider all cases upon their merits.

The Viceroy also stated that he was prepared to give the All-Indian Congress an adequate, as distinct from a majority, representation on the Round-table Conference.

EXPEDITION AGAINST VILLAGERS.

A JUNGLE MARCH.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

ISLAMPUR, SATARA DISTRICT, Friday.

A police force numbering about 250 men left here under the District Superintendent of Police, accompanied by the District Magistrate, before dawn this morning on a twelve-mile march into the jungle to deal with the agriculturists in the Satara district, who have been showing a truculent attitude during the past week. The object of the force was to raid the village of Bilashi, in the neighbourhood of which about 4,000 jungle tribesmen have congregated in defiance of law and authority.

The trouble started with acts of civil disobedience in the forest, and has ended with wholesale destruction of forest property, refusal to pay dues, and the enforced retirement of an armed police party who were threatened by a mob last week. Agitators had inflamed the illiterate tribesmen and had hoisted the national flag on a contraband teak pole from the jungle, which the primitive villagers were determined to defend.

During the night the road to Bilashi was broken up. This impeded progress, and reconstruction parties had to be sent out after dawn.

The police raid succeeded in spite of considerable opposition. The villagers refused to allow the collector and the police superintendent to enter Bilashi. They threw stones and hurled large boulders at the advancing force. The police then charged with their lathis (bamboo staves), and the village was thus cleared temporarily, but the police were again assaulted. The district magistrate then ordered the police to open fire. Two villagers were killed and others injured. Six policemen were badly gashed with scythes and injured by boulders.

The situation is now quiet. Many arrests were made, including several rich merchants. The national flag that had been hoisted on the teak pole was captured, and it is believed that the trouble has been quelled.

SCHOOLBOY RIOT IN KARACHI.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE LEADERS ARRESTED.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

KARACHI, Friday.

Disturbances occurred in several local schools this morning, the most serious being at Christ Church Mission School, where the students insisted on hoisting the Nationalist flag. The police had to use considerable force to disperse an angry mob, which pelted them with stones and brickbats, but eventually they removed the flag. Several persons were injured in the mêlee, including a police sergeant, who was badly hurt in the eye.

Excitement also reigned in the Indian Girls' High School, but there were no serious developments. Santdas Idanmal, Secretary of the local Satygrahi (War

UNREST IN THE ARGENTINE.

ANTI-GOVERNMENT DEMONSTRATIONS.

PRESIDENT ASKED TO RESIGN.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Friday.

According to the Associated Press Correspondent in Buenos Aires, two people were killed and thirty injured as the result of rioting last night by students who were attempting to reach the Government Palace.

The disorder started in the Avenida Mayo, the city's main thoroughfare, where the students broke through the cordon of mounted police. Several students and police were injured, one policeman fatally.

SHOOTING BEGUN.

The students paraded the Avenida Mayo shouting and singing, and finally encountered a band of adherents of President Irigoyen, one of whom started shooting. A fight ensued in which five more students were injured. The police again intervened, and this time succeeded in dispersing the rioters.

Meanwhile, the Cabinet was closeted with the President at his private residence.

According to La Nacion, the Cabinet has offered to resign collectively, and requested the President to resign at the same time, in the interests of the country, but it is reported that President Irigoyen again refused.

FURTHER TROUBLE FEARED.

The situation is very tense. The theatres in the capital are empty and unlighted, and the principal streets deserted.

A student has died of a wound which he received in a clash between the police and students in front of the Government buildings here. His death has caused considerable bitterness among the students, and they are now threatening further anti-Government demonstrations.

PRESIDENT DELEGATES HIS POWERS.

MARTIAL LAW IN BUENOS AIRES.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

BUENOS AIRES, Friday.

Although he has not responded to the incessant demands for his resignation, President Irigoyen has delegated his powers to the Vice-President, and has proclaimed a state of martial law.

According to the Associated Press Correspondent at Buenos Aires, the guards have been strengthened at the Central Police Department. Platoons of heavily armed officers are posted at the street corners, and many oil lamps have been distributed in buildings in case the electricity supply is cut off.

BOWING TO THE INEVITABLE.

PEOPLE WILD WITH EXCITEMENT.

BUENOS AIRES, Friday Night.

The Vice-President, Dr. Enrique Martinez, has duly taken over the administration. Rumours of the sudden change of Government were published in extra editions of the evening papers, and when the news was officially confirmed the populace became wild with excitement and greeted the announcement with the shrieking of sirens and the explosion of bombs.

The Minister of Justice, on behalf of the entire Cabinet, called upon President Irigoyen last night, and, according to the Associated Press, urged him to resign for the sake of the country. Señor Irigoyen at first was disinclined to follow this course, but finally bowed to the inevitable by delegating his powers to the Vice-President.

MORE STREET FIGHTING.

Following the announcement of President Irigoyen's action, disorders broke out in the Avenida de Mayo. Though not unexpected, the news had a stunning effect in the capital. At a given signal La Naçion exploded bombs announcing the extraordinary event, and the news ran like wildfire through the city.

There has been fighting near the offices of the newspaper La Prensa, and the telephone service to La Naçion and other leading papers was suddenly interrupted for some time.

A rigid censorship has been established on cable despatches, and public gatherings in the streets are forbidden.

DUBLIN MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

BUSINESS MEN CANDIDATES.

A meeting of the newly-formed Business Men's Association was held in the Dolphin Hotel, Dublin, last night to consider nominations for the forthcoming municipal elections.

The names of seventeen or eighteen leading citizens came forward for nomination, and the meeting adjourned until Tuesday next, when the final selection will be made.

BOMBING AEROPLANES IN CHINA.

NORTHERN FORCES' STATEMENT.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

PEKING, Friday.

Chengchow and Honan have been bombed by Nationalist aeroplanes during the past three days, and a number of persons have been killed and injured, while nothing of military importance was achieved.

Examination of the brass plates on thirty-three aeroplanes destroyed by the Northern forces show that over 80 per cent. of these 'planes were supplied by the United States and the remainder by Germany, and the Northerners claim that feeling is running high here against these countries for permitting the sale of these engines of war.

MR. HODSON'S CONDITION.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

CALCUTTA, Friday.

It is officially stated that the condition of Mr. Hodson, the Superintendent of Police, who was shot at and wounded on Monday last, shows distinct signs of improvement.

ON THE FRONTIER.

ENEMY POSITIONS SHELLED

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

SIMLA, Friday.

Reports from the frontier state that hostile positions have been further reinforced in the region of Kurrum, and increased firing has occurred at Kharlachi Militia post. The enemy positions were shelled yesterday afternoon. There are indications that there will be a renewal of hostile activity in the Peiwar area shortly. The hostile Jhani Khels were heavily bombed yesterday.

LATE NEWS.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH "THE TIMES."

INDIAN PEACE.

THE BREAKDOWN IN THE NEGOTIATIONS.

The Times of to-day observes in a leading article:—The peace negotiations between the Government of India and the imprisoned leaders of the Congress Party have broken down, and it is now reasonably certain that the largest and best organised section of the Hindu Nationalists will take no part in the round-table conference. There may be subsequent defections, notably among the Congress Party of Bengal, who have never followed Mr. Gandhi with the zeal and devotion of his disciples in Western India. The group of Nationalists who broke away temporarily—and in some cases permanently—in 1923 from the principle of non-co-operation were led by the late C. R. Das, one of the ablest political chiefs that Bengal has produced. He advocated entry into the Council with the ostensible object of wrecking the Legislature from within, but this did not prevent him from opening negotiations with the Government shortly before his untimely death. Still, it is safer to assume that the great majority, if not all, of the extremer Nationalists will again refuse co-operation, and that no delegates of the Congress Party will take part in the round-table conference. Their absence will be regretted in this country; for it is plain that without them the Hindu politically-minded classes in British India will be under-represented in London. Men of at least equal intellectual calibre and greater administrative experience will be there on the Hindu side, but there can be no doubt that the Congress Party holds pride of place among the Hindu political groups.

It may be argued that, even so, it only represents a majority of the members of particular classes and castes, but given the social and political structure of British India, it is as representative as any other can be, save the spokesmen of the more democratically organised Moslems. But it is unjustifiable to assume, as some pessimists in this country and more in India seem inclined to assume, that the refusal of the Congress Party to attend the round-table conference except on terms which no self-respecting Government could accept, will "wreck" the conference. Vocal and well organised as it is, the Congress Party is no more than a party lacking in cohesion, united only in opposition to the Government, which has so far given no evidence of constructive ability beyond a scheme for a Constitution which all the Indian minorities have rejected. All other sections of British Indian opinion will be represented in London, and it should be remembered that in essentials there is no great difference in principle between the demands of the moderate Hindu parties and those of the Congress Party so far as the major issues are concerned.

OBDURATE LEADERS.

The causes of the imprisoned leaders' refusal and the text of their joint letter to Lord Irwin are not definitely known. It is generally believed, however, that Mr. Gandhi was less hostile to an agreement which would have permitted co-operation with the British Government at the round-table conference than his fellow-prisoners. It would seem, indeed, that Pandit Motilal Nehru has called the tune, and, having lost his own liberty in his advocacy of the civil disobedience, of which he notoriously disapproved, has now shown greater obstinacy than the Mahatma, and has incidentally prolonged his colleagues' captivity. If, as is asserted in well-informed quarters, Mr. Gandhi has shown a desire to end the civil disobedience campaign, it must be supposed that the refusal to abandon the Lahore resolution, repudiating the Indian public debt, and the demand for the release of prisoners on trial for political crime and conspiracy, which are contained in the joint letter to the Viceroy, are the work of the Nehrus. If these demands have been seriously made, and are not merely demonstrative, it can only be supposed that the leaders of the Congress Party, or a majority of these leaders, still believe that they can impose humiliating terms on the Government of India as a condition of their willingness to co-operate with the round-table conference. But if the mission of the liberal and responsivist leaders has failed, it was patriotically undertaken, and the Government of India was fully justified in giving it all possible assistance.

The obduracy of the Congress leaders had been expected, and will, therefore, arouse the less disappointment. Neither the co-operators nor the Government of India have anything to reproach themselves with in this connection. It was desirable that the Congress should be represented at the conference, but the presence of their delegates is not indispensable, and Government and co-operators can continue their preparations for the meetings in London with a clear conscience.

THE RED FLEET.

SOVIET METHODS OF POPULARISING.

The Times Riga Correspondent telegraphed yesterday:—The Profintern (Red Trade Union International) has sent a special delegation composed of 40 Germans and Poles to Kronstadt to inspect the Baltic Red Fleet. The delegates, who had attended the Congress of the Profintern, called together the officers and men of the Fleet on board the battleship October Revolution, and harangued them on military and political affairs, particularly on the necessity for high efficiency in the Red Fleet of the U.S.S.R., the "fatherland of the world's masses." Some of the Profintern delegates are also attending the autumn exercises of the Fleet and the manœuvres of the Red Army, which began this week.

The Soviet authorities also sent a number of authors and painters to attend the manœuvres, with instructions to collect materials and impressions for the production of books and pictures, with the view to making the Red Army and Fleet better known among the masses at home and abroad. The Sovkino (Soviet cinema organisation) has also been commissioned to make film scenes for exhibition at home and abroad.

NEW TURKISH PARTY.

WELCOME FOR LEADER.

In a message from Constantinople yesterday, The Times Correspondent says:—Fethy Bey, the leader of the new Liberal Republican Party, had an enthusiastic reception on his arrival at Smyrna, thousands of excited people lining the quays and parading the streets. Many houses and shops displayed flags contrary to police orders, and some arrests were made.

Addressing the crowd from the balcony of his hotel, Fethy Bey thanked Smyrna for the welcome, and exhorted everyone to maintain law and order. The Smyrna branch of the Turk Ojaghy (Turkish Hearth) has offered Fethy Bey the use of its building for the speech he is to make to-morrow.

It is becoming increasingly apparent that the population of Constantinople and Smyrna, two of the largest towns, is in favour of Fethy Bey's new party, but the supporters of Ismet Pasha, the Prime Minister, declare that Anatolia is behind the Government. Officials of the Liberal Republican Party state that the civil servants who have joined their party run the risk of being dismissed from their posts, and that it is difficult for anyone to obtain employment in the Government service unless he promises allegiance to the popular party beforehand.

Although this statement is not confirmed, it is indubitable that the popular party is making every effort to strengthen its position. Newspapers supporting the popular party are making much play with the intention credited to Fethy Bey of favouring the entry of foreign capital into Turkey, and permitting foreign financial control. This has aroused Fethy Bey to declare that if he came into power he would not contemplate raising a foreign loan, but would try to obtain foreign participation in the State Bank.

STATE FAMILY ALLOWANCES.

A £100,000,000 BURDEN.

TRADES UNION ADVERSE VOTE.

CALL FOR BETTER SOCIAL SERVICES.

By a majority of nearly two to one, after a discussion which lasted well into the afternoon, the Trades Union Congress at Nottingham yesterday decided in favour of the extension and the development of social service in preference to direct State family allowances to mothers.

A card vote was taken on an amendment by the Miners' Federation to refer back the General Council's decision to support the minority report of the Joint Committee of the Trades Union Council on the living wage. This report advocated the extension of social services. The Miners' Federation further recommended the General Council to accept the majority report which has been adopted by the majority of the Labour Party Executive, and is in favour of direct family allowances at the rate of five shillings per week for the first child and three shillings per week for each succeeding child.

The miners' amendment was defeated, the figures being—For the reference back, 1,347,000; against, 2,154,000. Subsequently the minority report was accepted without a card vote.

The effect was that the Trades Union Council emphatically turned down the policy of cash family allowances.

THE MINORITY REPORT.

In the minority report, which was backed by the General Council, it was stated: "At the lowest computation the payment of allowances at the rate of five shillings per week for each child would cost about £100,000,000 per annum. At the lower rate for children after the first, as recommended in the majority report, the cost would presumably be somewhere in the neighbourhood of £70,000,000 per annum. It is merely blinking the facts to imagine that any Government in the near future is going to be able to raise this sum in addition to all other commitments, including extensions of social services.

"Such funds as are available would achieve far more valuable results in the form of improved health, education and other conditions of well-being for the children if expended in developing the social services than if spent in cash payments."

IMPRACTICABLE DECISIONS.

Mr. C. T. Cramp (General Council), moving the section of the report dealing with family allowances, said that in a matter of this kind the Council must keep in mind two main considerations—was the proposal desirable and was it practicable.

"I think that every one will agree," he said, "that if the Congress were consistently to take decisions which were hopelessly impracticable, and which, in the eyes of the average trade unionist, would become absurd, the Congress and its Council would lose the influence they possess in trade unionism."

Did they believe that the present scheme was practicable? asked Mr. Cramp. "If we do not, I submit that one ought not to pass a resolution which will make us appear ridiculous ultimately in the eyes of the average trade unionist."

EXTENDED LOCAL SERVICES.

Every principle of collectivism which they held was in favour of the provision of social services, rather than the scattering of money. The General Council believed they must stand by the report, which would extend the social services already provided. They could not agree to a principle which would confer certain benefits on a household where there were children and withhold them from other households where responsibilities were usually as great, but where they did not take the form of children. There were many men and women supporting infirm relatives who could not benefit by family allowances.

MINERS' RECOMMENDATION.

Mr. Peter Lee (Miners' Federation) moved the reference back of the report, and recommended the General Council to accept the majority report. The miners did so for two very important reasons. One was the cost to the ratepayers of the social services under the present conditions, and the second was the low wages in industry, such as the iron and steel trade, the shipbuilding trade, the engineering trade and the miners' trade—all the evidence that they had pointed in the direction of a system of cash allowances sapping away the spirit of independence and adventure, which had brought trade unionism into being.

"It is said that the State cannot afford it," he said, "and that if we pass it we shall ruin the nation. A nation that spent to the tune of five and a half millions a day to take life, should surely be able to spend sufficient to maintain life."

Mr. Ben Turner, M.P., seconded Mr. Lee's motion. If the labouring folk of the country had brought an increase of wealth of four hundred million pounds, it was time for them to have some of it to go on with.

WEAK TRADE UNIONISM.

Mr. H. H. Elvin (National Union of Clerks), supporting the General Council, said that in countries like France and Belgium, where family allowances existed, they had weak trade unionism and very little collective bargaining. The introduction of family allowances in France, Poland and Italy had had the effect of withholding increases of wages for unmarried workers.

Mr. A. Hayday, M.P. (General Council), said that, in his opinion, a family allowance cash payment would lead to wage rates being based upon the single man conglomerate, crazy system of social service that they had in this country.

"There is room for this country to spend two hundred and fifty millions more in making adequate its present social service. If you carry this family allowance to-day; if you press the Government to put it on the Statute Book, you sidetrack all effort from your other social services, and they would be neglected," he declared.

MR. COOK AND THE CHILDREN.

Mr. A. J. Cook (Miners' Federation) said that the old pioneers would have turned in their graves if they could have heard the speech of Mr. Cramp. There was a limit to raising wages, even by trade union organisations, and that was useless unless the unions could support the men in an industrial conflict. The children were the determining factor in a struggle. One they were safe and secure the men would willingly tighten their belts.

"Mr. Cramp was against social reform, which alone saved revolution," he added.

Mr. W. H. Hutchinson (President, Engineering Union) also supported the proposition of the General Council, and appealed to the delegates not to be carried away on an issue of this description by appeals like that made by Mr. Cook.

Miss Dorothy Evans (Women Clerks) spoke in favour of the Miners' Federation resolution.

MONEY WITHOUT WORK.

Mr. F. Wolstencroft (Woodworkers), as a signatory to the minority report, said that they were gradually coming to a time when they would be able to offer anything but work.

"We should have to say to you, one and all: 'We shall give you some kind of payment from the day you are born to the day you are buried.' (Hear, hear.) That is not my opinion of Socialism. It is killing the militant spirit of the movement to-day."

Miss A. Loughlin (Tailors and Garment Workers) made an eloquent appeal for cash payments "to take the children out of the firing line."

Mr. W. McAdam (N.U.R.) described the family allowances scheme as "another of these barren bees hovering about inside the hospitable bonnet of the National Labour Party."

MR. CRAMP'S REPLY.

Mr. Cramp, replying to the debate, said that they who were dealing with great Labour problems would not be helped in the slightest by State subsidies; rather would they be weakened. His old friend Ben Turner had made a pleasant Sunday afternoon speech. No doubt, if he met the railway directors he could bring tears to their eyes, but not a "bob" from their pockets.

The motion for reference back on the General Council's report was defeated by 2,154,000 to 1,347,000.

The Committee's minority report was subsequently carried by a large majority.

A SIX HOURS DAY.

Before the question of family allowances was reached, Mr. P. H. Collick (Locomotive Engineers and Firemen) moved a resolution calling on the Government to introduce legislation in order to shorten the working day to six hours.

Mr. J. W. Halliday (Locomotive Engineers and Firemen) seconded.

Mr. B. Sullivan (Tailors and Garment Workers) said that it was ridiculous to call on any Government until they had educated their own members against overtime. The proposition was not a practical one.

The previous question was moved, and carried.

THE TRADE DISPUTES ACT.

On a section of the General Council's report dealing with the Trade Disputes Act, Mr. Ernest Bevin said that, knowing the strong feeling of the trade unions on this matter, the Council had conveyed it to the Prime Minister and the Government, who had met them on the matter. They appreciated the Government's difficulties. When the Labour Government came in much legislation had been delayed by the Conservatives, and there had been no progressive legislation in the House of Commons for nearly seven years. Since the advent of the Labour Government there had been continued pressure for certain things to take precedence. At one period it seemed that there must be a choice between an Education Act and the repeal of the Trade Disputes Act. The General Council strongly resented being placed in that position, because, whatever educationists might say, the Trade Union movement was as keen on raising the school age as anybody else. Fortunately, the necessity of making a choice was avoided, but they had insisted—he thought, rightly—that the bill to amend the Trade Disputes Act should take its proper place of precedence in the coming session. What they asked for was the complete restoration of the pre-1927 position.

"We do not admit, and will never acquiesce in the view that the general strike was a revolutionary strike. It was an exercise of the workers' right of association to assist their fellows against what they believed to be a wrong imposition of a reduction of wages. We are assured that the bill will take its proper place, and I can say in your name that if the Government for any reason fails to honour the pledge which Mr. Clynes made here the other morning, it will be strongly and deeply resented by the trade unionists of the country."

PAYMENT FOR HOLIDAYS.

On the motion of Mr. John Hill (Boilermakers), the Congress passed without discussion a resolution reaffirming the demand for payment for holidays for all workers.

The General Workers' Union carried a resolution viewing with alarm the attitude some employers of labour were adopting towards the social services, in implying that existing wage standards could not be improved upon owing to the cost of those services.

Supporting a resolution for the control and inspection of road transport goods vehicles, Mr. Archie Henderson (Transport Workers) emphasised the dangers of the roads. They had heard, he said, of the dangers from wild beasts in India, but far greater dangers were run by people on the roads in this country than were run by the average native in India.

The resolution was adopted.

THE GENERAL COUNCIL.

The new General Council were elected by ballot as follows:—Mining—Messrs. A. J. Cook (Miners' Federation), R. T. Jones (North Wales Quarrymen's Union), and T. Richards (Miners' Federation). Railways—Messrs. J. Bromley (Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen), C. T. Cramp (N.U.R.), and A. G. Walkden (Railway Clerks). Transport other than Railways — Mr. J. Beard and Mr. E. Bevin (Transport and General Workers' Union), and Mr. Ben Tillett, M.P. Shipbuilding—Mr. J. Hill (Boilermakers). Engineering—Messrs. A. A. Findlay (United Pattern Makers), J. Rowan (Electrical Trades), and A. B. Swales (Engineers). Iron and Steel—Messrs. W. Kean (National Union of Gold, Silver and Allied Trades), and A. Pugh

Loughlin (Tailors and Garment Workers) and Miss J. Varley (Transport and General Workers' Union).

The only changes on the Council are that Mr. J. Hindle is elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. J. Ogden, and Mr. O. Townley, President of the Boot and Shoe Union, is elected in place of Mr. E. L. Poulton, who has retired under the age limit.

TRIESTE TERRORIST TRIAL.

CLOSING STAGES.

TRIESTE, Friday.

"I ask for a just, but stern, punishment," said the Public Prosecutor at the conclusion of his long indictment to-day of the alleged terrorists who are charged with atempting to blow up the offices of the paper, Popolo di Trieste, last February and with other offences. The trial, which has been marked by sensational revelations, has attracted a large number of spectators, including prominent Italians and Foreign Consuls.

The Public Prosecutor pressed for the capital sentence in the case of five of the accused, and heavy terms of imprisonment for a number of other accused.

In the course of his speech, Maitre Dessy referred to what he described as the enthusiasm with which the entry of Italian soldiers into Trieste was greeted at the end of the war. Their hearts, he said, were full of enthusiasm for their new brothers, who became Italian citizens without distinction of blood or race. The Fascist Party had opened its ranks to all Slavs and Italians who acted in good faith and kept in mind the supreme good of the country. The general elections had shown that the Fascist Government had been appreciated by an overwhelming majority of the people, but an infamous minority of agitators had endeavoured to corrupt the youth of the country.

A number of scoundrels had engaged in a struggle against Fascism and their activities had been supported by a public Press campaign, supported from across the frontier. Associations on the other side of the frontier had supplied subsidies to illegal bodies with headquarters in Italy. It was clear that what they were to against was a fight against Fascism and a conspiracy which had military ramifications.

When the Public Prosecutor concluded his speech there was an outburst of cheering from the public in court. The President of the Court immediately suppressed the demonstration and threatened, if it were renewed, to clear the court.

FIRST EXECUTION FOR SIXTY YEARS.

MURDERER WITH MANY VICTIMS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, Friday.

Carl Panzram, who was hanged here this morning, was the first man to be executed in Kansas since 1870. He is alleged to have confessed to having murdered twenty-two people. An application to President Hoover for mercy was rejected. The condemned man was jeered at by spectators as he walked to the gallows. Noticing two chaplains in the death chamber, he asked the governor of the prison to have them removed. The chaplains left at once.

THREE RAILWAY LINES BLOCKED

Three of the four main lines of the London, Midland and Scottish Railway were blocked about five miles south of Bedford yesterday as a result of a collision between two goods trains.

Six main line express trains from Scotland and Manchester, due at St. Pancras, were diverted to Euston. Breakdown gangs from London were rushed to the scene. They worked by the light of flares, and were quickly able to clear one of the blocked lines, but normal running was not resumed until after midnight.

Passengers for Bedford from London on the 6.35 p.m. train, which usually takes an hour, did not arrive in Bedford until after 10 p.m. One of them described the sight of one hundred men of the breakdown party working among the débris, with two huge cranes, by the light of large electric lamps as eerie. Passengers who put their heads out of the windows to get a better view of the scene were warned to take them back again owing to the proximity of the piled-up wreckage. Trucks were piled up for a distance of over one hundred yards and both engines were overturned. Bricks, which formed the load of one of the trains, were strewn all over the track. No serious personal injury was sustained, the engine crews having had time to jump clear.

STATE OF SIEGE IN ARGENTINA.

BUENOS AIRES, Saturday.

Vice-President Martinez, to whom President Irigoyen delegated his powers, has issued a decree proclaiming a state of siege in the capital for thirty days, with a view, it is stated, to restoring normal conditions.

MALTESE PILGRIMS

RECEIVED BY THE POPE.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
VATICAN CITY, Friday.

This morning the Pope received about a hundred Maltese pilgrims, led by Monsignor Mauro Galea, Vicar-General of Malta, and Monsignor Dominico Cutajan.

The Pontiff, who was greeted with loud applause, gave his hand to each to kiss and then addressed them from his Throne. He urged them to continue in the tradition of their people, to love and follow the Bishops, the Pope, Jesus Christ and the Church, which were the links between earth and heaven.

His Holiness recalled the words of a Protestant a century ago, who said that when it was a question of Church or Pope, it was useless to try to change the Maltese, who were unshakeable in their faith.

The Pontiff ended by giving his blessing to the visitors and their families and to the whole island of Malta.

AMERICAN STUDENTS' ADVENTURE.

THE COURT'S DECISION.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
CAPE TOWN, Friday.

The four American students who were granted an attachment order against the steamer Litiopa yesterday in regard to an alleged infringement of contract were found liable by the Supreme Court to-day for the costs incurred by the respondents, and were ordered to pay ten guineas costs. The respondents were ordered to pay the students the wages owing to them and the cost of their passage in the Armadale Castle to America.

A FLOATING MINE.

BATHERS UNCONSCIOUS OF DANGER.

Officers and members of the gunboat H.M.S. Sherwell, who had been sent from Dover to Folkestone yesterday, removed from a floating mine a charge of two hundred pounds of T.N.T. It had been noticed by two boys who were bathing. The mine was floating within two hundred yards of the town's most popular bathing place, and the boys actually rapped its side, but, fortunately, did not touch the contacts. Crowds of villagers looked on while the staff of naval experts rendered the mine harmless by removing the detonator and the charge of high explosive. It was later stated that the mine was an English one, made about fifteen years ago. Examination showed that it was in perfect condition, despite its long immersion in the sea.

DISORDERS IN SPAIN.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
SAN SEBASTIAN, Friday.

Disorders broke out to-day at Renteria in connection with a general strike, and the police had to take energetic measures to restore order.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

The deaths from all causes appertaining to the undermentioned areas for the week ended 30th August, and for the four weeks ended that date, were equal to the following annual rates per 1,000 of the population:—

Eleven town districts, 11.0 and 10.4; Dublin registration area, 10.8 and 10.2; Dublin County Borough, 12.5 and 11.4; Cork, 10.0 and 11.7; Limerick, 15.9 and 12.6, and Waterford 5.9 and 9.3.

The deaths from the principal epidemic diseases recorded for the eleven town districts last week were equal to an annual rate of 1.1 per 1,000. Among the fifteen deaths recorded from all causes for Cork were:—1 from diphtheria and 1 from diarrhoea and enteritis, of a child under two years; 2 of 3 deaths for Waterford were from diarrhoea and enteritis, of children under two years; one of the 6 for Galway was from diphtheria, and the three deaths for Tralee included 1 from whooping cough.

In the Dublin registration area the total number of births registered during the week ended 30th August amounted to 243, of whom 126 were boys and 117 girls, and the deaths 110, of which 57 were males and 53 females.

During the thirty five weeks ended Saturday last, the death rate for Dublin area averaged 15.0 per 1,000, and was 1.8 below the mean rate for the corresponding periods of the ten years 1920-1929.

Of the 88 deaths appertaining to the area, tuberculous disease accounted for 13 (10 from pulmonary tuberculosis, 1 from tuberculous meningitis, and 2 from general tuberculosis), as against 7, 9, and 12 from all forms of tuberculosis in the three weeks preceding. Ten deaths were caused by cancer.

Mortality among children was 23, of which 19 were infants under one year, and 4 under one month.

The mortality in the 107 large English towns, including London (in which the rate was 11.9), was equal to an annual death-rate of 11.2 per 1,000. The average death-rate of the 16 principal towns of Scotland was 11.4. The rate for Glasgow was 11.5, and for Edinburgh 10.9.

MISSIONARY NOTES.

FROM OUR CHURCH OF IRELAND CORRESPONDENT.

Miss Matthews, who is working under the South American Missionary Society at Araucania, Chile, asks for a mimeograph, or duplicator, to assist her in the work which she has to do. The cheapest to be had in Santiago costs $700.

During the year 1929 the number of adults received into the Church through the door of the Church Missionary Society was 38,567, an average of 106 per diem.

Miss Parsons, of Greystones will sail this month for the mission field in Persia, to work under Bishop Linton.

The Mission Farm situated at Ummedpur has been engaged in an interesting experiment. Four years ago the headmaster was given one ear of wheat, which, he was told, was found in a very old building that was being excavated at Sind. The ear contained 114 grains. When sown, grain of an unusual character appeared, every ear having little branches springing up out of it, one, two, or more, up to nine in number. The seed thus obtained was sown, and the crop obtained therefrom was resown. This year the third harvest was reaped from it. The grain stood over five feet high, all the ears having the characteristics described. The yield on the plot of 208 square yards was equivalent to 33 4-5 bushels per acre. The importance of this may be seen when it is realised that the average yield in India is only 12, in Egypt 26, and in England 32 bushels per acre. The grain is large and fine, and is apparently very fertile wheat of an unusual character. Some has been sent to the Government botanist for analysis to ascertain its food values. It is apparently similar to the Egyptian "mummy wheat," which is described in the Encyclopædia Britannica as having "small rudimentary branches at the base of the ear, but nothing like so fully developed as ours."

The value of missionary work in developing the Indian mind is shown by the following paragraph in the Simon Commission Report:—"The Indian Christians stand high in the table of literacy—more than one in five.... a remarkable result, considering that so many are drawn from the lowest strata of Hindu society." It may be mentioned, for the sake of comparison, that, taking India as a whole, only one in every sixty-two men and one in every five hundred women are able to read and write a short letter, which is the test of "literacy."

BALLYVAUGHAN'S CLAIMS.

The question of inducing shipping companies, whose Atlantic liners call at Galway Bay, to land a fair proportion of their tourist passengers at Ballyvaughan, is receiving serious consideration in CLARE, and steps are being taken to put proposals before the proper authorities. During the past twelve months four liners disembarked passengers at the Clare port, and two of these, the Baltic and the Cedric, were the largest that ever visited Galway Bay.

UNLICENSED STALLION.

When prosecuted at THOMASTOWN by the Free State Department of Agriculture for having an unlicensed stallion for stud purposes, Michael Wall, Brownstown, Kilmoganny, pleaded that he did not know of the existence of the Horse Breeding Act, 1919. In accepting the plea, and fining the defendant 10s. and 10s. costs, District Justice McCabe said that it was the first case of the kind that had come before him during his seven years as District Justice. In future he would be as severe in such cases as under the Live Stock Breeding Act.

THE COST OF WATER.

Following repairs carried out to the water mains, MONAGHAN Urban Council has decided to increase the charges for water to all consumers. The Mental Hospital, which requires 37,000 gallons daily, is to be charged 9d. per 1,000 gallons. Smaller county institutions in the town, the County Hospital, County Sanatorium and County Fever Hospital are to be charged 1s. Buildings on which rates are not paid are to be charged 1s. 3d. per 1,000 gallons; ratepayers using water for other purposes than domestic 1s. per 1,000 gallons, and people living outside the town at 1s. 9d. per 1,000 gallons. Resolutions fixing the new rates were fixed by a majority.

OUTDOOR RELIEF.

At the ENNISCORTHY Urban Council meeting, Mr. Thomas McCarthy, Chairman, who presided, replied to statements made at the last meeting of the Wexford County Board of Health about the amount of outdoor relief distributed in Enniscorthy as compared with Wexford. The fact was, he said, that the relief paid in Wexford was about the same as in Enniscorthy in proportion to the population. No doubt there was a lot of unemployment, but the Council had done their share in relieving it. All that the Council could do was to make the most of their resources towards providing relief, and they had done as much as any other Council in that respect.

He left the railway service to take up a position with Messrs. Harland and Wolff's, and later accepted a chief engineership on board one of the line of vessels owned by Messrs. Edward Bates and Sons, Liverpool. In 1910 he returned to the railway.

A KILN OF STOUT.

At LIMERICK District Court yesterday Mortimer Lynch, dock labourer, was charged with the larceny of a kiln of stout, valued at £8, from the stores of the Great Southern Railways, Limerick. The accused man, in a statement to the Civic Guards, said that he was at a wake, where he had a considerable quantity of drink; then, when coming home in the morning, he opened a sealed waggon at the railway premises and took out a kiln of stout, which he rolled some distance till he got a cart, and finally left it and the barrel in a laneway. He did not drink any of the stout. A railway inspector said that there were several instances in which stout had been stolen at Limerick and Limerick Junction railway stations. District Justice Flood described the case as an extraordinary one, and said that he would give his decision next court day.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF TRAWLER.

The voyage of a motor fishing trawler between LETTERFRACK (Connemara) and Falmouth had a sequel at a special Court, which was held in Clifden, when three men, who were arrested in England by the sergeant of the Letterfrack Civic Guards, were charged with the larceny of the trawler and a motor lorry, both belonging to the West of Ireland Fisheries Company, Letterfrack. The accused men were Allan Cooms Jerrard, whose address was given as London, and who was stated to be the chief engineer of the West of Ireland Fisheries Company; John Stanley Vinncoombe, of Falmouth, and Ted Rashleigh, Falmouth, also employés of the company. Only evidence of arrest was given at the special Court, and the three accused men were remanded in custody. Escorted by Civic Guards, the three men were brought by train to Galway Prison yesterday.

SMUGGLING CHARGE FAILS.

At DUNDALK District Court yesterday Samuel Bothwell, of Upper Commons, and Walter Scott, of Hill street, Newry, were charged with having smuggled a Morris-Cowley car, raincoats, men's suits, and women's stockings into the Free State. Mr. J. B. Hamill, State Solicitor, who prosecuted, said that the motor car in which the defendants travelled was observed coming from Northern Ireland one morning by a by-road, which would have taken them clear of the Free State frontier post. The car was hailed from the Customs hut, but failed to stop. The Customs officer admitted that the drapery goods were lying openly in the back of the car, and there was no attempt at concealment. If he had not been able to borrow a motor car and race to the by-road he would not have caught the men from Newry. The defendants gave evidence that they had never intended to come into the Free State and that they had made a mistake in a road turning. District Justice Goff dismissed the case, but said that it was a proper one to bring. It would make all people who used these roads more careful.

CHILDREN'S PLIGHT.

"It is one of the most appalling cases that I have been called to deal with," said Justice Reddin at CLANE yesterday, in recording a suspensory sentence of a month each on William and Margaret Moore for neglecting their five children. Inspector O'Donnell, of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, said that the children were in a shocking condition. They were hungry and emaciated looking, and when he visited their home he found the parents absent, and no food in the place except a small packet of Indian meal. There were no beds, except a few litters of straw covered by soiled rags. William Moore said that he was drawing 14s. a week unemployment insurance. He would prefer to be in jail any day. The Justice said that he never wanted to be hard on poor people, but he thought a bar of soap would not break even the poorest of the poor. Furthermore, the defendant should have applied for home help. Moore—It is the last straw. I have never taken a drink in my life, and I have never been in court. The Justice—The male defendant has adopted a certain amount of posing in this case which does not impress me. The order of the Court will take effect in seven days if the Inspector is not satisfied with the way the children are being looked after.

PRICE OF PIGS DOWN.

At TIPPERARY fat pig market on Thursday quotations were 46s. to 47s. per cwt., live-weight, a fall of 6s. per cwt. from last week.

STRAY CARRIER PIGEON.

A stray carrier pigeon, with a ring on its right leg, bearing the letters and numbers IU 30 FS 346, is being cared for by Mr. Martin J. O'Dwyer, Glenbane, Holycross, Thurles.

DOCTOR'S DEATH IN SOUTH AFRICA.

The death has occurred at Mossel Bay, South Africa, of Dr. Charles Atkins Kitching, who served with the R.A.M.C. in France during the Great War. He was a son-in-law of Mr. P. Moloney, Newtown, WATERFORD.

FOR SERVICES RENDERED.

At WATERFORD District Court, Guard Scully, Ferrybank, was presented by the District Justice with a certificate and a walking stick, awarded him by the All-Ireland Donkey Protection Association in recognition of services in the protection of donkeys.

MISSING MONEY AND JEWELLERY.

At TIPPERARY Court last Thursday two brothers, Robert McLoughlin (23) and John McLoughlin (16), and Patrick Kavanagh (14), all of Spittal street, Tipperary, were charged with the larceny of £50 and a quantity of jewellery from the residence of William Delane, Bank place, Tipperary. The two McLoughlins were returned for trial and were removed in custody. Kavanagh was discharged under the Probation of Offenders' Act.

THUNDERSTORM HAVOC.

Serious losses are reported to have taken place in Co. WEXFORD as the result of the recent thunderstorms. The transformer station of the Electricity Supply Board at Barntown, Wexford, was damaged; several horses were killed and injured. A quantity of hay also is reported to have been burned. At Castledermot the transformer station was badly damaged by the lightning, and employés of the Electricity Supply Board were engaged all day on Thursday repairing the damage, which, it is stated, amounts to about £200. The town was without light until after 10 o'clock on Thursday night.

CINEMA OPERATOR'S ESCAPE.

Following the fusing of a lamp in the re-winding room of Rialto Cinema, DERRY, yesterday, a film became alight. The assistant operator, Francis McKeever, escaped to the roof, and was rescued by fire brigade ladders in a collapsed condition, and removed to hospital. Mr. Harold Scott, an official of the London firm which has just completed the "talkie" installation, escaped by the re-winding room emergency exit to the roof. There was no performance on at the time, and the auditorium escaped damage. The "talkie" installation was considerably damaged.

R.I.C. PENSIONERS.

A largely attended meeting of pre-war R.I.C. pensioners was held at 49 May street, BELFAST. The chairmanship being vacant through the removal of the late chairman, Mr. T. Flynn, from Belfast to Coalisland, Co. Tyrone, ex-Head Constable Sheridan was then proposed to that position. This proposition having been seconded, Mr. Sheridan was elected unanimously. The hon. secretary read a letter received from Major Ross, M.P. for Londonderry, promising his whole-hearted support in the Imperial Parliament in any claims of pre-war R.I.C. pensioners for increases of their inadequate pensions.

CHARGE AGAINST RENT COLLECTOR.

At KILBEGGAN District Court yesterday, Christopher Quinn, until recently employed by the Westmeath County Board of Health as cottage rent collector, was returned for trial to Mullingar Circuit Court on a charge of fraudulently converting to his own use a sum of £109 9s. Evidence was given by Mr. Michael Lennon, Secretary of the Board, as to the alleged defalcations, and as to several calls made by the Board on him when the arrears in his collection district seemed unduly high. Mr. P. Carey, Mullingar, gave evidence of having taken charge of the district. Mr. Quinn had been suspended. In his (Mr. Carey's) presence the defendant admitted having converted a sum of £109 9s. to his own use, and promised to make good the same.

DRINKING AT SPORTS MEETINGS.

When dealing with five applications for occasional licences at a forthcoming coursing meeting in Liscannor, District Justice Gleeson said that if he granted the five it would nearly mean a public-house for every dog. Superintendent Feeney said that the more tents the less drinking. When there was only one tent at a race or sports meeting everybody met everybody else and started treating. The result was that twice as much drink was consumed as there would be if there were a number of tents. He noticed also that at some fixtures people who got occasional licences charged extra prices for drinks. In one case a Kilrush woman charged the Food and Drugs Inspector 2s for a "small" whiskey. (Laughter.) The Justice adjourned the applications, and said that he would grant two only at the next Court.

DISTRICT JUSTICE'S SUGGESTION.

Commenting on a series of assault cases which came before him at ENNISTYMON District Court, District Justice Gleeson said that most of the assaults seemed to be due to the desire on the part of young men to prove that one was "a better man than the other." He could not help thinking that many such assaults would be obviated if boxing clubs were started. If some association or private person did something like that he would present a set of boxing gloves. If young men wanted to fight one another, it would be better that they should do it under proper conditions, and not be waylaying each other at night at a cross-roads or jumping at one another from behind walls. Mr. J. Connole (Court Registrar) said that if that were done and boxing clubs established the solicitors would have very little to do.

CRUELTY TO DONKEYS.

At KILKEE, Mrs. Johanna Behan, of Rehy, was fined 20s. for cruelty to a donkey. Guard Murphy stated that Mrs. Behan, who was a young woman, was stabbing a donkey cruelly on the back with a safety pin when he met her. He stopped her, and she said that she did not think she was doing any harm! James Lynch, of Carrigaholt, was fined 7s. 6d. for cruelty to a two weeks old donkey. Lynch left the little foal without food or water for seven days. The animal was left in a field about a mile outside Carrigaholt, and the mother taken away from it. The foal was too young to eat grass, and, when found by Guard Murphy, it was scarcely able to get up. District Justice Gleeson said that the case was a shocking one, and the defendant should really be sent to jail. He was so poor that it was no use imposing a heavy fine. A fine of 2s. 6d. was imposed on Mrs. Mary Mahony, of Cloncunneen, whose son was found working a donkey with sores on its breasts.

REVOLVERS IN ROOF.

At TIPPERARY last Thursday, Patrick Keogh, farmer, Lisgibbon, Bansha, and his son, John, were charged with having three revolvers, a double-barrelled shot-gun, and a quantity of ammunition unlawfully in their possession. The defence was that when John Keogh was removing the thatched roof off the house for the purpose of putting on a corrugated iron roof they found the revolvers and ammunition. They kept them in a press in the house, not knowing that they were committing a breach of the law. The shot-gun was purchased by Patrick Keogh in 1900, but for some time he had not renewed the licence. Detective Officer Kelly said that the revolvers were of an antiquated pattern. The defendants were not the type of persons who would make wrong use of firearms. The defendants were discharged under the Probation of Offenders Act, and the guns and ammunition were ordered to be confiscated.

U.S. MARKETS.

STOCKS CLOSE STRONG

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.
NEW YORK, Friday.

An irregular tendency prevailed at the opening, but later the market turned abruptly upward, many issues rising from 2 to 6 points. The advance, however, which was confined largely to a group of Industrials and Specialities, with Steels, Amusement issues and Merchandising prominent, appeared to represent covering by bears, who were discouraged by the scant volume of selling brought out by their operations. Brokers' loans for the week increased by 8,000,000 dollars. More optimistic reports regarding retail trade, together with the maintenance of a good investment demand for bonds and preferred stocks, inspired optimism in some speculative quarters. The turnover, however, remained light, the up-turn reflecting an extreme scarcity of sellers rather than any considerable number of buyers. Utilities joined in the forward movement, which gathered considerable momentum in the final dealings, and the closing was strong. The day's sales totalled 1,645,000 shares.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Friday.

WHEAT commenced firm ⅛c. to 1⅛c. higher, and further improved on improved export business in hard winters and Durum wheats, complaints of dry weather in S.W. Kansas, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and buying in futures, which was credited to foreign interests. Less North-Western hedge selling was another helpful factor, and the market closed firm at 2c. to 1½c. improvement. No. 2 closed firm at 2c. to 1⅞c. improvement.

A TOUR IN ABYSSINIA.

In connection with the coronation of H.M. King Tafari Makonnen, Emperor of Abyssinia, on November 2, Messrs. Thomas Cook and Son, Ltd., have arranged a tour to that country. The ceremony will take place at Addis Ababa; and, in addition to being present at this, those who participate in the tour will have a grand opportunity of seeing the remarkable country of Abyssinia, one of the only two independent countries left in Africa.

The cost of the tour, including first-class steamer and rail tickets and hotel accommodation, is £325 from London, and the party will leave on October 16, arriving at Addis Ababa on November 1. The return journey will begin on November 11. British subjects travelling will require passports for the countries through which they pass, including French Somaliland, and Messrs. Cook will secure these.

POLICE PROTECTION AT BANQUET.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
ORENSE, Friday.

Armed police had to be called in to protect a banquet, given here to-day to a son of the late General Primo De Rivera, the former Spanish Dictator, from being wrecked by Socialist extremists who tried to force their way into the room.

Some 250 lambs, 170 store and 250 fat sheep were also shown. The cattle fair was composed chiefly of Shorthorn and Aberdeen-Angus crosses. Prices for all bullocks and heifers, excepting stores of outstanding quality, were lower than those prevailing at recent fairs. A good number of secondary animals remained unsold. Fat cattle met a slow trade at values tending lower, but some 85 per cent. of the exhibits were eventually sold. Springers and milch cows met a slow inquiry at slightly reduced rates, and many lots remained unsold. Sheep and lambs were in moderate request at about recent quotations. Range of prices per head:—Calves under six months, £2 to £4. Store Cattle—Six to twelve months: 1st class £8 to £10, 2nd class £5 10/- to £7 10/-; one to two years: 1st class £12 to £14 10/-, 2nd class £9 to £11 10/-; two to three years: 1st class £15 to £17 10/-, 2nd class £12 to £14 10/-; three years and over: 1st class £18 to £19 10/-, 2nd class £15 to £17 10/-. BUSINESS AT GENEVA.

PLANS OF M. BRIAND AND MR. HENDERSON.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

GENEVA, Friday.

Mr. Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, spent a quiet day dealing with routine official business. He received a few personal friends, but had no engagements to fulfil. He will, however, be occupied during the next few days in preparation for the opening meeting of the League Council on Monday.

The Conference on M. Briand's scheme for a European Federation is to be held on Monday afternoon, and, if it should be able to come to a speedy decision as to subsequent procedure, M. Briand will probably make his speech in the Assembly on Thursday. He is expected to devote a large part of his address to his proposal. If time permits, Mr. Henderson will speak in the Assembly on the same day as M. Briand.

It is understood that Mr. Henderson's visit to Geneva will last about three weeks. He is anxious to return to London about the 26th inst., in order to be in good time for the opening of the Imperial Conference on the 30th inst.

General Hertzog and other Dominion chief delegates will probably return about the same date to attend the Conference.

Dr. Michael F. L. Fay has been appointed Certifying Surgeon for the Edenderry District under the Factory and Workman's Act, 1906. Dr. Michael J. Daly has been appointed to a similar position in the Carrickmacross District.

HANDBOOK OF THE CURRAGH CAMP.

The Central Welfare Board of the Curragh Military District have issued an interesting brochure, entitled "Handbook of the Curragh Camp: The Training Centre of the Irish Army." Major-General H. MacNeill, G.O.C., of the Curragh Military District, prefaces the Handbook in a "Foreword," in which he credits Captain E. O'Boyle and certain colleagues with the production of the Handbook. The greater part of the work is concerned with the personages and circumstances in which the Army was established at the Curragh, and on that head much interesting information appears.

FOR THE NURSES' FUND.

Moore Abbey, Monasterevan, which, by kind permission of Count McCormack, is open to the public to-day in aid of the Nurses' Pension Fund, is a place of great historical interest and of undoubted natural beauty and charm. It is within forty miles of Dublin, and a visit will well repay those who take the journey.

The resignations of Colonel James Sheils and Lieutenant James Patrick Hawe from the Reserve of Officers of the Irish Free State Army have been accepted by the Executive Council.

GOSSIP FROM THE COURSE

TWO GOOD FILLIES.

BREEDERS' PLATE FOR LINDOS OJOS.

MELLIN'S FOURTH VICTORY.

FROM OUR TRAVELLING CORRESPONDENT.
MANCHESTER, Friday Night.

Even though fields were generally on the small side this afternoon, the racing was good. There were two quite noteworthy performances on the part of two two-year-old fillies, bred in Ireland. The first of these was Lady Helen McCalmont's Lindos Ojos, a terrifically speedy daughter of Buen Ojo, who won the Autumn Breeders' Foal Plate in a canter. Straverna, to whom she was giving a lot of weight, led her from the gate, but she could have gone to the front at any time. Below the distance Beasley allowed her her head, and she won cantering by three lengths from Straverna.

The other good two-year-old performance of the afternoon was that of Lady Marjorie, who won the Palatine Nursery. Odds were always being asked for her, and after taking some little time to settle down she won with the greatest ease from Jerome Fandor.

A USEFUL PAIR.

The winner is a daughter of Sansovino, who was bred by Mrs. Croker and was sold, I think, as a foal to Mr. Peter Fitzgerald, who offered her subsequently as a yearling at Doncaster. This made the third race which she has won in succession, and she and Lindos Ojos have now won no fewer than nine races between them. Sir Victor Sassoon's Heritage was only narrowly beaten for second place, and Twelfth Night was a fair fourth. The Irish filly Betty Fay hung right away with Canty towards the far rails, and was beaten out of a place, although she had displayed good initial speed.

After the race for the Irish Hospitals' Cup a great many people were inclined to dispute the decision of the judge who gave Sir John Rutherford's Phalaris filly Tefnut as the winner by a head from Heronslea. Tefnut made the running, but it did seem that Heronslea got up in the last fifty yards and beat her. Dines, who rode Tefnut, was a little surprised to discover that he had won. Knight of the Vale ran well without being quite good enough.

A CONSISTENT WINNER.

Of all the horses in the stable of Mr. S. B. Joel Mellin seems to be the only one who is capable of winning him a race. He had his fourth victory this season when he made virtually all the running for the Ellesmere Handicap and finished a length and a half and a short head in front of Trochee and Tad. Caraquette was eased up in the last hundred yards, but was easily second best.

The horses owned by the King have been unlucky this season. It did seem in the last race, the Spinner's Plate, that His Majesty's Fairy Story would prove good enough, but the daughter of Captain Cuttle was caught close home and beaten by Mrs. Power's Cenobite, whom Vasey trains at Doncaster.

SELECTIONS.

There will be a field of only eight runners for the Prince Edward Handicap, the principal event here to-morrow. Cacao and Arctic Star will both be in the field, but the former has done nothing since he beat Sir Joshua in the Queen's Prize at Kempton Park in the spring. Arctic Star also has not been showing to any great advantage in his recent races. It is likely that the race will rest between the two who were first and second in the Goodwood Stakes—Joyous Greeting and Medarlin—the latter of whom ran away with this race last season. There is not much between them, but I have a slight preference for the chance of JOYOUS GREETING.

The Wilton Nursery may be won by the MISS JESSICA FILLY, and the St. Denis Plate by SPINNER'S COTTAGE.

At Folkestone the Stayers' Handicap may be won by DUNLAVIN LASS, and the Fillies' Nursery by the TYPIST FILLY.

The Late Mr. E. Kennedy's Horses.

Mr. Robert Kennedy has notified the Keeper of the Match Book that he has taken over all engagements of the horses formerly the property of the late Mr. E. Kennedy.

Arctic Light and the Cesarewitch.

The first horse to be inquired about for the Cesarewitch since the publication of the weights is Sir Matthew Wilson's Arctic Light, thirty-threes having been laid in the north yesterday.

Why Pipina Did Not Run.

Jack Sirett weighed out for Pipina in the Maiden Two Years Old Selling Plate at Folkestone yesterday, but the filly having been pricked in shoeing, her number was withdrawn by permission of the Stewards.

PROUDSTOWN PARK.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS

The lowering of the admission prices at Proudstown Park should appeal to racegoers, who are now afforded an opportunity of visiting one of the finest racecourses in this or any other country at as low rates as are charged anywhere. The course, as well as being a splendid one for racing, is situated in the most picturesque part of the Meath country, and is easy of access from Dublin. Those to whom time is not a consideration are well served by the special train, for which specially reduced rates have been arranged. It leaves Broadstone at 11.30 a.m., and goes direct to the racecourse siding, returning at 6.30 p.m.; and there is an alternative train via the Great Northern Railway from Amiens street to Navan, also at 11.30, returning at 6.20 p.m. An excellent road service to the course is available by 'buses leaving Aston's quay at 1.15, returning after the last race, the fares for which are extremely moderate.

Thirty-eight runners have been declared for the six races, which include two five-furlong events, as well as the usual hurdle and steeplechase races, and there is every prospect of an interesting afternoon's sport. Certainly those who cry out for cheaper racing cannot cavil with the prices now charged, and it is to be hoped that the executive's enterprise will meet with its due reward. Selections:—

MANCHESTER TO-DAY: PROBABLE STARTERS AND BETTING.

CACAO FANCIED FOR CHIEF EVENT.

FROISSEE MAY WIN THE WILTON NURSERY.

The Prince Edward Handicap will overshadow all other races in interest at Manchester to-day. The field is not likely to number double figures, and the issue should rest between Cacao, Joyous Greeting and Medarlin, each of whom possesses good credentials. This is not to say that none of the others have chances. Arctic Star, for instance, is running into form, while Montclair, although disappointing in recent races, must not be disregarded altogether. Oletta is something of a mystery at present, and I prefer to leave her out of calculations, while Glenlossie, although right at the bottom of the handicap, does not make much appeal. Boss of The Show is an attractive each-way proposition, and a reproduction of his Hurst Park runing will make him difficult to beat.

It is, however, to the three first mentioned—Cacao, Joyous Greeting and Medarlin—that I look for the winner. It is, moreover, in that order that I like them. Joyous Greeting, who deputises for Old Orkney, I like a little better than Medarlin, but Cacao appeals more than either. The Clarehaven horse is not so bad-tempered as some people think. I am hoping that he will be on his best behaviour here, and that he will run as well as he did when winning the Queen's Prize. That being so, I make him my selection, although expecting stiff opposition from Joyous Greeting and Medarlin.

In the Wilton Nursery I intend to take sides with Froissee, who has a handy weight. Tom Tit III. and Miss Jessica filly have encouraging form, and Itsagift is well spoken of, but I shall not oppose Froissee.

NEW YORK, Friday.

J. B. Balding, a reserve player, and brother of Gerald Balding, was so severely injured in a practice game yesterday that he will be prevented from participating in the international matches against America for the Westchester Cup. The accident occurred at the Meadowbrook Club, where Balding was playing in a pick-up contest with Earle W. Hopping, Stephen Sandford and others. During a particularly hard scrimmage Balding's pony went down and Balding was thrown heavily on to his shoulder. An X-ray photograph failed to disclose any fracture. The surgeon, however, decided that he will not be fit to play in the international matches which begin to-morrow.

Balding's injury is the third casualty the British team has suffered since its arrival. Captain R. George, a candidate for No. 1 post, contracted a chill shortly after his arrival and never reached the form shown by him in practice matches in England. On Monday last Aidan Roark, another candidate for No. 1 position, underwent a serious operation for mastoiditis. His condition is reported to be improving.

GOLF.

WILL IRELAND WIN?

TO-DAY'S MATCH WITH ENGLAND.

BRILLIANT PLAY BY M. CROWLEY.

The match between Ireland and England will be played to-day at Portmarnock, the foursomes starting at 10.30 and the singles at 2.30. There have been no changes in the teams as selected.

As a result of what was seen in the practice play during the week local opinion inclined in favour of the Irish team, but there was not such a marked feeling of optimism after the stroke competition yesterday, in which the members of the team, as a whole, failed to distinguish themselves. On the other hand, there was a marked improvement in the golf of the Englishmen. But one cannot estimate the chances of players in match play on their performances in medal rounds, and the Irishmen may, with confidence, be expected to make a bold bid for victory, which, should it be achieved, would be their second in the series for the year, the other having being gained over Wales, while the match with Scotland was drawn.

The teams, given in the order in which they will play, are:—

THE STROKE COMPETITION.

One of the best scores accomplished by Michael Crowley on the Portmarnock links won for him yesterday the stroke competition, with which the Irish Open Amateur meeting was opened. His round was 73, but there were several others of note.

One of the early returns was that of T. Healy, who went round in 75, and for a long time headed the totals, both for the best gross and best nett, but R. H. Oppenheimer followed with a 75, and then came another 75 from A. R. MacCallum, of Castle Bromwich. The result of the long day's play was that Crowley secured the best gross prize, but T. Healy and R. M. Saunders (Killiney) tied for the best nett with 74, and the doctor, Oppenheimer and MacCallum were equal for the second best gross. The ties will be played off. It was a delightful day for the inauguration of the meeting, and seldom has the links been in better condition for any championship. Crowley's score equalled the amateur record for the course, standing to the credit of H. M. Cairnes, the captain of Portmarnock, and it represented most excellent golf, for the par is seventy-three and the bogey seventy-seven. He went out in thirty-seven, thanks to splendid recoveries from bunkers at the second and fourth, and the quality of his golf was accurately reflected in the figures, which were:—

M. CROWLEY.

Out ... 4 4 4 5 4 5 3 4 4=37.
Home ... 4 5 3 5 4 3 4 4 4=36.

It is true that the course was not at full championship length; but the medal tees were in use.

OPPENHEIMER'S LAPSE.

Oppenheimer, unfortunately for himself, had trouble playing the seventeenth. Here he hit one of the best from the tee, a very long and straight ball; but he played a very poor second, which landed him in rough, and from it he found a bunker, and the hole cost him a six, but for which, and a couple of fours at short holes (12th and 15th), he would have had a particularly hot score. He was playing much better than in the match with Portmarnock and the Oxford and Cambridge Society on Monday, his wooden play being more convincing.

Dr. Healy, who won the premier prize in the stroke competition of 1928, went out in thirty-six, but he had three putts on four greens, which were the only lapses on a fine round. Another capital score was that of William Ffrench, whose 76 included, however, sixes at the sixth, thirteenth and sixteenth; but against that he had a three at the long eleventh. T. A. Healy, who just got a place in the seventies, looked at one period as if he would have a really good score, being only one over fours, going to the fifteenth (he holed the third with a drive and a number four iron), but the fifteenth and sixteenth cost him fives each. The scores in the seventies were:—

GAELIC GAMES.

ALL-IRELAND HURLING.

FINAL TO-MORROW AT CROKE PARK.

DUBLIN V. TIPPERARY.

(By PAT'O.)

Thirteen years ago Tipperary and Dublin met in an All-Ireland hurling final. Dublin won after a fast, rigorous game. Collegians represented Dublin then, and Boherlahan Parish picked the Tipperary team. To-morrow Faughs have the Dublin pick, and the Tipperary selection is entrusted to Thurles.

DUBLIN'S PROBABLE TEAM.

Mr. James Walsh, President of the Dublin County Committee and captain of the Faughs, leads the home team. Thirteen stone, speedy and resolute, he holds his end up as left half-back with brilliance and steadiness. He is, perhaps, the best man in his place to-day. A native of Mooncoin, County Kilkenny, educated at St. Kieran's College, he has been playing for Dublin since his arrival here nine years ago. He has led twenty-two men through rigid training, and is satisfied that they are fit and well. From these, fifteen men will be selected, but no definite placing is certain before the final line out. It is probable that Dwyer will play goal, with Bourke holding a waiting brief. Quirke, McEnerney and McMahon are the likely fulls. O'Meara, Teehan and Walsh may make the half-line. The centre field is certain to be manned by Gill and Finn, two colleagues of long experience from the same parish in Galway. Leeson, of the Army, and Quin'an, of the Guards, will probably play wings, and the front line may be made up from Power, Byrne, Barry, Burke, Hegarty, Tumpane and Griffin. The forward line is still difficult of selection, but there are many men of sound credentials to fill the vacancies. From this list we can estimate Dublin's individual strength and resource. Whether they will "group up" and enter into the spirit of the game with the same enthusiasm as the Tipperary men is another matter. Should Dublin reproduce the form they displayed against Cork in the National League final last November they cannot lose. Yet, in this year's games against Meath and Laoighise the City fifteen were loose and ragged. They have learned something from these games, and in my opinion will play far better to-morrow.

TIPPERARY'S CHANCE.

Tipperary will rely on the fifteen which defeated Waterford, Clare and Galway so readily, with a possible change at centre and a readjustment in attack. In O'Meara they have the best goalkeeper playing the game to-day. McKenna, Loughlin, Ryan, Purcell, Meagher and Butler may fill the back line. Treacy and Lanigan are likely to play partners at midfield. Phil Cahill and T. Leahy may be the selected wingers, and J. J. Callanan (capt.), Harney, Kennedy and Cronin, who have combined well in recent games may again be included among the forwards.

Tipperary are a temperamental side, who play their best game when roused and in arrear. Clare was their most difficult opposition; for the team which beat Cork at Limerick were favourites for the championship. Tipperary's favouritism to-morrow is largely based on the "line" with Clare, but it must be said that Clare had slightly the better of this game if we except a brief session early in the second half. Tipperary's back line has not given satisfaction, and some late changes may be made. Hackett was a certainty for his place before his accident, and his recent hurling was outstanding. Tipperary may be behind at half-time, but they will rally in the second session, and I believe the finish will be very close. It may develop into a battle between a capable individual side and a group of hurlers with all Tipperary's tradition behind them.

I inspected the pitch last afternoon. It is perfect. Mr. Curran, groundsman, has been busy under Secretary O'Keeffe's supervision, and the rain had only added to the resiliency of the sod. The attendance will be over the 30,000 mark, and elaborate preparations have been made for their comfortable entrance and exit.

CRICKET.

THREE DRAWN GAMES.

BRIGHT BATTING AT SCARBORO'.

RUSSELL IN FORM.

The first match of the Folkestone Festival ended yesterday in a draw. There had been storm and rain during the night, but the wicket having been covered the turf was not affected, and consequently no chance existed of the match having a definite result. The Australian total was brought to 222 before Bradman was palpably leg before. Altogether he and Jackson added 103 in 70 minutes, Bradman, in a characteristic display, hitting six 4's, and being in for 75 minutes. After MacCabe had been bowled, middle stump, at 242 by a splendid ball, Jackson and a'Beckett put on 65 in 50 minutes. Jackson obtained the highest score of the innings by excellent and stylish batting—his driving, leg placing and cutting being admirable. In for nearly two and a-half hours he hit seven 4's. Nine wickets were down for 345, but Hornibrook and Wall, with a fair amount of luck, stayed together 70 minutes and added 87. The Australians' innings lasted over six hours, and the total headed that of their opponents by 29 runs—in the circumstances, a capital performance.

YORKSHIRE'S BIG THREE.

At Scarborough yesterday the batting of Sutcliffe, Holmes and Leyland attained to great brilliance. Holmes, making his 86 in 100 minutes, played most refreshing cricket, hitting all round with fine determination, and having two 6's to square leg and seven 4's among his strokes. The one blemish in a fine display was a chance on the square leg boundary at 64. Sutcliffe not only showed freedom, but skill of particularly high class, in putting his sixth hundred of the season. Especially strong in off-driving and square-leg hitting, he had a 6 to square leg, and seven 4's in a practically faultless 102 not out, which extended over two hours and twenty minutes. Leyland, determined to force the game at any cost, gave difficult chances at 14 and 38, but still played capital cricket, obtaining his 51 in fifty-five minutes with seven 4's as his chief strokes. Bowes, in taking four wickets, brought his aggregate for the season to 102. Thanks to the brilliant batting shown by the three men, Barber, the retiring Yorkshire captain, was able to declare, setting M.C.C. 202 to make in rather less than two hours. The task was, of course, too heavy; and, with Dawson disabled early on, the visitors soon found themselves with nothing to play for beyond a draw. Duleepsinhji batted admirably for an hour, hitting seven 4's and putting on 51 in sixty-five minutes with Turnbull. Kennedy, in scoring 9 runs, completed his 1,000 runs. He has now accomplished the all-round record five times.

ESSEX FORCE A DRAW.

Sir Julien Cahn's XI. were unable to force a victory over Essex yesterday at West Bridgeford, Nottingham, although the county, who required 214 runs to avoid an innings' defeat, were at one time in a very anxious position, having lost six batsmen for 125 runs. However, O'Connor and Russell put on 90 for the seventh wicket, and then Russell received valuable assistance from Castor, the eighth partnership producing 112. By this time the match was a certain draw, and, although the last two wickets fell quickly, the innings closing for 348, no time was left for the scratch side to bat again. Russell for the second time in the match was dismissed when in the "nineties." He batted an hour and three-quarters, and, in hitting fifteen 4's, made many attractive strokes.

GREYHOUND RACING.

PRINCE FERN WINS THE IRISH DERBY.

An excellent programme, featured by the final of the Irish Greyhound Derby and the second heat of the Irish Greyhound Oaks, attracted a very large gathering to Harold's Cross Park last night, and provided racing of the highest standard.

The Derby, regarded as a very open affair, was won by the Belfast dog, Prince Fern, after a great race with Odd Minister. The pair came up the straight close together, and it was only nearing the line that Prince Fern drew out to win by three-quarters of a length, with Whatever third. The latter showed in front from the box, but got shut in going round the first bend, and though he got clear he was unable to overhaul the leaders.

There was another close contest for the Oaks, Marlinstown Lass just holding on to beat Bevidy by a bare half-length. The latter was coming a great bat in the straight, and would have won in another few strides.

The consistent Rathganly won the Metropolitan Hurdle and Greyhill the Midland Hurdle. Details—

THE SENIOR CUP FINAL.

EASY VICTORY FOR DUBLIN.

PEMBROKE OUTPLAYED.

DUBLIN .... 5 PEMBROKE 2

Dublin met Pembroke in the final of the Leinster Senior Cup at the Blackrock Baths last evening, in warm weather, before a large crowd of spectators.

Dublin had much the harder task to reach the final, being drawn against the holders, Sandycove, in the first round—a tie that took not less than four meetings to decide; and was then won by a penalty goal in the last minute. Dublin then accounted for Clontarf somewhat readily in the semi-final. Pembroke qualified for the final by a fine victory over Dublin University.

Dublin, naturally, were much more fancied to win the trophy, the Pembroke side being mostly composed of young players, lacking in the experience possessed by their opponents.

Playing well within themselves, Dublin prevailed by five goals to two. They always had the measure of their opponents, and indulged in the development of passing movements. The game was of a most pleasant character, a feature being the small number of frees. Actually, four goals were registered before the first free was given—a rare occurrence in a cup final.

Dublin practically monopolised the attack, but Ellerker and Stafford defended strongly. Barrett scored the first goal from a pass by Purcell, which was followed by two scores in succession by Hayes Dockrell. Ellerker worked out an opening for himself and reduced the lead with a brilliant long shot. Percy Dockrell added Dublin's fourth before half-time.

Ellerker, with another splendid shot, scored for Pembroke after the change over, but Dublin continued to have most of the game, and Purcell added a fifth after hitting the cross-bar.

Dublin—T. J. Stafford; D. Murtagh, N. M. Purcell; M. A. O'Connor (capt.); C. S. Barrett, P. H. Dockrell, T. H. Dockrell.

Pembroke—D. Stafford; M. Horan, R. S. Savage; H. G. Ellerker (capt.); J. Bryson, B. McKeown, D. Rudd.

Referee—Mr. H. F. Brennan.

YACHTING.

LAST DAY OF THE SEASON.

This is the official last day of both the Dublin Bay S.C. and the Seapoint B.C. season, and, if decisions be come to in certain races, it really may bring racing to a close in the bay for the year.

But "last days" are tantalising things and dependent often upon the whims of the weather, and this afternoon may prove no exception to this rule.

Here is the position: The Dublin Bay S.C. have the usual set of matches listed, and, if any one falls through or the time limit rule brings it to summary ending, no great harm is done.

There are two side issues, however, contained in this set of matches, or rather two ties to be settled one way or the other—one between Punctilio and Mavis in the Class A cruisers for the Irish Times special prize, and the other in the 21-Footers' match between Innisfallen and Garavoge for the "Kismet" prize.

In the same way Seapoint B.C. have the Dalkey Island Cup to settle, and there is also the Smallridge Challenge Cup left over, and so they, too, will welcome a good sailing afternoon to fix up things for the season.

To-day's fixtures are:—

Dublin Bay S.C.—Class A cruisers' handicap (3 o'clock), 21-footers (3.5 p.m.), 17-footers (3.10 p.m.), small cruisers (3.15 p.m.), water wags (3.20 p.m.).

Seapoint B.C.—Dalkey Island race (3.30 p.m.).

Howth S.C.—17-footers (3.30 p.m.).

D.B.S.C. HANDICAPS.

FERMANAGH YACHTSMAN'S SUCCESSES.

Lieut.-Colonel H. S. C. Richardson, D.L., Rossfad, Co. Fermanagh, who won all the eight races in the dinghy classes at the Kiel Regatta this year, has also had a remarkable success in the same class at the Norfolk and Suffolk Yacht Club Regatta. The Filibuster, with which he won the eight races in the German regatta, won by the dinghy class. The helm was held by Mrs. Richardson, and in a similar class at the Yare and Bure Sailing Club's Regatta Filibuster again won. For the Prince of Wales' Cup for the international fourteen-footer class Colonel Richardson secured second place. On Lough Erne this year Colonel and Mrs. Richardson won seven out of eighteen races.

DUBLIN INQUEST.

MOTORING ACCIDENT RECALLED.

A verdict of death from cardiac failure was returned by the jury at an inquest held by Dr. L. A. Byrne, Dublin City Coroner, on the body of Mrs. Esther Ridgeway (aged 50), of 41 Annesley avenue, North Strand, Dublin. She was taken to Jervis Street Hospital on Sunday suffering from injuries to both legs received in a motoring accident at Clontarf, and was discharged after treatment. On Tuesday she was re-admitted to the hospital suffering from kidney trouble.

Evidence was given to the effect that the driver of a motor car in which Mrs. Ridgeway was a passenger mistook a turn, and drove through a wire paling and on to the foreshore, where the car overturned, throwing her out.

The medical evidence stated that there was extensive kidney disease, and that death was due to cardiac failure.

GUARDS COMPLIMENTED AT SHANKILL.

At Shankill District Court Mr. Reddin, D.J., sentenced Matthew Lyons, native of Arklow, to a month's imprisonment for stealing a camera from Kilnamona, the residence of Colonel Tottenham. Colonel Tottenham said that he wished to take the opportunity of testifying to the great efficiency of the Guards. On very little evidence they had routed out the offenders in two cases and had obtained convictions.

Mr. Reddin asked Inspector Murphy to convey these compliments to the proper quarter.

UNABLE TO PAY FINE.

STREET MUSICIANS GO TO PRISON.

(BEFORE MR. HANNAN.)

Allan Doe, Bernard Howard, George Jones and Michael Buckley, travelling musicians, who were stated to have come from London, were summoned for causing an obstruction at Eden quay, Dublin, between 10 and 11 o'clock the previous night.

Guard 78 C, giving evidence, said that he found the defendants playing stringed instruments on the footway, surrounded by a crowd, and obstructing pedestrians endeavouring to get to the 'buses. They declined to desist when requested to do so, and he had to get the assistance of another Guard to take them to the station. When he spoke to them they said that they wanted to earn the price of their night's lodgings. He understood that they came from London a fortnight ago, and had been playing in the city streets and at seaside resorts.

Doe, answering the Justice, said that things were bad with them, and they were trying to get the price of their lodgings while the people leaving the theatres and picture houses were about.

Howard said that, if the Guard had not interfered, they would have got the money they wanted in a few minutes. (Laughter.) In other places where they had played not much official notice had been taken of them.

The Justice said that they must not cause an obstruction in the public street, and should have gone away when the Guard asked them. He should impose a fine of 5s. on each of them or, in default, four days in Mountjoy.

Doe said that they had only 6s. between them, but the Justice declined to accept that sum.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.

Arthur W. Slater (44), described as a commercial agent, with an address at Tynemouth street, Hull, was remanded for a week on an independent bail of £20 on a charge of attempting to obtain by means of false pretences from Miss Eileen Burne, a clerk at the Royal Typewriter's office, South Frederick street, Dublin, the sum of £1 by falsely stating that he was a representative of the "Commercial Directory and Guide," and asking for 20s., the cost of two advertisements which had been inserted in the publication and which had not been paid for.

Miss Burne said that the defendant called at the office in South Frederick street and handed her two slips of paper, saying that he wished to see the manager, adding that he wanted to get paid the money which was noted on them. She handed the slips to the manager, and when she returned to the office, where the accused man was, he went away, saying that he would be back in ten minutes. He came back again, and the manager saw him.

Michael Richard Nolan, the manager of the office said that he communicated with the detective branch, and just as the detective arrived so did the defendant. The defendant protested that he had not asked for any money. There was no money due on the two advertisements.

THE BROKEN WINDOW.

Mary Turner, a married woman, living in North King street, was discharged under the Probation of Offenders' Act, having undertaken to pay the cost of a pane of glass which she broke in the licensed premises of John J. Bannon, Upper Dorset street, on the previous night.

Mr. Bannon said that the defendant went to his shop for a drink the previous night, but, being under the influence of drink, he put her out. At ten o'clock she returned and smashed the glass.

To Mr. O'Brien, solicitor (who defended), witness said that he did not actually see the defendant break the glass.

The defendant, in the witness box, denied breaking the window, but said that she might have told the Guard that she had broken it, because she had had a few drinks that night. She was upset, as her child was operated on that day.

BAD LANGUAGE.

Margaret Little, Lower Bridge street, was fined 20s., and Kitty O'Dwyer, Grattan Court, 40s. for using obscene language the previous night in the city.

UNLICENSED BOOKMAKER.

The adjourned case against John Collie, junior, Donore road, for acting as a bookmaker at a recent meeting at the Shelbourne greyhound track without being licensed was again before the Court.

Mr. D. O'Flaherty (Chief State Solicitor's office) prosecuted, and Mr. P. H. O'Reilly, solicitor, defended.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that what the Revenue authorities wanted to do was to prevent the extension of such a practice—that was, that a licensed bookmaker could depute anyone to act for him as a bookmaker while he attended another meeting.

Mr. O'Reilly said that the circumstances were that the defendant's father, who was a licensed bookmaker, got suddenly ill and the son represented him at the greyhound racing.

The Justice applied the Probation Act to the case.

THE PHŒNIX PARK ACT.

Twenty boys, whose ages ranged from twelve to fifteen years, were summoned for entering the Phœnix Park on the days of the International Grand Prix motor races without having paid for admission.

Inspector Hurley, traffic department, mentioned that these were the first prosecutions under the Phœnix Park Act, 1925. The young fellows, he said, climbed over the Park walls on the days of the races.

A fine of 2s. 6d. was imposed in each case.

MESSRS. CRAIGIE BROTHERS' SHEEP SALE.

With 8,000 sheep penned in the Dublin Cattle Market yesterday, Messrs. Craigie Brothers had the largest sale of ewes, rams, store wethers and lambs held in Ireland for several years. There was a large attendance of buyers from all parts of Ireland, including a big contingent from Northern Counties. A steady trade was experienced right up to the end, and, with the exception of some culls, nearly every lot found a purchaser. The sale began at noon and ended at 5.45 p.m., Mr. Robert and Mr. Alex. Craigie taking their share of the work on the rostrum.

Mr. R. K. Wright's Shrop. shearling rams ranged from 9½ to 10½ gns., Mr. G. N. Jessop's shearling Oxford rams from 8 to 9 gns., Shrop. rams from the Harristown flock from 8 to 9½ gns., and Border Leicesters from the same flock from 8 to 9 gns. Galway ewes generally ranged from 50/- to 58/-, Mr. J. Owen Flynn's, however, brought from 56/- to 64/-, the best pen being purchased by Professor Drew, Albert College, Glasnevin, while Mr James Mulhern's brought from 33/- to 63/-; Mr. Jos. Doherty's draft of 200 ranged from 49/- to 55/-.

There were 3,000 Cheviot ewes on offer, and the top price of 60/- was obtained by Messrs. Maguire, Glencullen, who had a draft of 200, which ranged down to 53/-. Mr. John J. Smyth, Loughrea, obtained from 45/- to 56/- for his lot, while Mr. J. J. Blake, Ballyglunin, had 70, which ranged from 50/- to 55/6. The demand for Cheviots was a feature of the sale, and the general run of values was from 45/- to 55/-.

A good inquiry also was experienced for black-faced hornies, of which there were 3,500 on offer. These ranged from 25/- to 36/-, but Mr. Prendergast, who had a consignment of 600 head, obtained up to 37/6.

Cross-bred lambs, from Messrs. Egan, Tullamore, brought from 43/- to 46/-, while Mr. J. J. Smyth secured from 39/- to 41/- each. Mr. James Darcy's lambs brought from 33/- to 40/-, while his cross-bred ewes brought from 48/- to 56/-.

Amongst the buyers were:—Professor Drew, Lieutenant-Colonel Hely Hutchinson, Messrs. T. H. Carter, Mountrath; James McGovern, Belfast; John Tennant, Bagenalstown; W. S. Yates, Athy; R. Cox, Dundalk; J. J. Mangan, Garristown; T. Plunkett, Ashbourne; N. J. Rooney, Clonsilla; J. N. Wardell, Celbridge; W. C. Graham, Tullamore; R. Tevlin, Kells; J. S. Griffin, Skerries; Mrs. N. J. Kelly, Kilsallaghan; T. Byrne, Milltown; P. Long, Swords; George Holmes, Westmeath.

LONDON MINING MARKET DULL.

TIN STILL ON THE DOWN GRADE.

There was practically no buying of mining shares on the part of the general public, and professional trading was also reduced, so that prices in a number of cases sought lower levels. Paris seemed to be content to look on, and the Cape was not so acquisitive as during the early part of the week. A few counters were bought by the latter centre, but the falling-off in the demand generally led to declines here and there, and Kaffirs were thus irregular. Dealers in the Rhodesian department reported a very quiet day, and on balance there were less than half a dozen alterations. The price of tin continued on the down grade, another fall of 2s. 6d. being recorded at £133 5s. per ton. Conditions in the share market were idle, as may be seen from an almost entire lack of changes. Of the Westralians, Lake View and Star recovered. It is understood that the rumour which has been circulating in the market to the effect that the company is going to raise fresh capital is without foundation. The price of copper fell 5s. further to £47 per ton, but the share market continued steady. Lena held their rise, and, in fact, were rather buyers, while Russos strengthened. Silver rose 1/16d. to 16⅜d. per ounce, and this helped on the advance in Burmas. Friscos also improved, but Santa Gertrudis were unaffected. Closing prices:—

DUBLIN SETTLEMENT MARKET.

COURTAULDS STRONG.

This being the last regular dealing day for next Thursday's settlement, price movements showed the usual elements of irregularity as adjustments were being made. Government National Loans were firm all day on balance. British Funds were on occasions dull as regards price movements. Corporation, etc., issues were firm to strong. There was still inquiry for some Banking securities, with Bank of Ireland Stock again prominent with a further rise. Nationals also closed good. Royals left off sellers and lower. Realisations were still pressed in Guinness units at a further few pence easier. Cables recovered sharply from the previous day's relapse, which may indicate increased prices or fluctuations when dealing for the new account opens on Monday next. The loss of £21,047, after paying the £7,650 Debenture interest, shown by the accounts of the Dublin Distillers Company for the year to end of June last, has been provided by drawing £7,650 from the General Reserve, and £13,397 from the Special Reserve, thus leaving only £2,350 to credit of the former Reserve, and £11,602 to credit of Special Reserve. The present issued capital of the company consists of £200,000 in 4½ per cent. Debenture Stock, £130,000 in 520,000 "A" shares of 5s. each, and £190,000 in Ordinary Stock—or £520,000 in all. Liabilities when balancing were only £8,329. The Property and Assets total £567,896, and include Premises, Plant, etc., £157,683; Stocks, £362,080—a decrease of £5,978; Motors, etc., £4,357; Debtors, £30,082; Investments, £10,643 in £18,342 of the company's Debenture Stock and 500 shares in Geo. Roe and Co., Ltd.; Cash for Trustees, £2,461, and cash, £632. Sales are reported to have increased. The annual meeting of the shareholders will be held at the Engineers' Hall, 35 Dawson street, Dublin, on Friday, 12th inst., at 12 o'clock noon.

Increased support was offered for Grand Canal issues. The Pref. improved 1s., while the Ordinary were held for 95s., a rise of 5s. on the recent ex div. price. Rail Ord. were dull and lower, but Debenture issues were held for higher prices. Nominal prices remain for Trams. British-American Tobaccos rose sharply, but Imperials were the turn easier. Coats were finally a few pence lower, but large support absorbed Courtaulds at higher prices. Dublin Artisans' Dwellings advanced to a price not seen since the Great War. Dunlop Rubbers were harder, and firm buying continued for Imperial Chemicals. Gouldings closed steady. Newspaper Shares were a little harder. Parkes Pref. were freely bid for, and advanced. Unilevers were confidently bought at higher prices also. Vickers were again better, and Shell Transports held the recent advance. Alliance Gas were firm, but idle, on the repetition of the 7⅝ per cent. per annum dividend on the Consolidated Ord. Stock for the half-year to 30th June last. The dividend is equal to 7s. 7½d. per £10 unit of stock. Vocalion Gramophone Shares scaled upwards.

LONDON GENERALLY STRONGER.

RAILS ADVANCE.

During the early hours of yesterday the London Stock Markets presented a rather quiet appearance, interest being restrained by the fact that members' attention was principally directed to the preliminary arrangements in connection with Monday's carry-over. Renewed strength developed after midday, however, and quotations were again marked forward, many of the improvements registered at the close being of a substantial character. Quiet conditions still prevailed among British Funds, and, with the exception of the 3½ per cent. Conversion Loan, which were finally the turn harder, quotations lost ground where any movement was shown. Dublin Loan went off to 4 prem. Among Colonial Government Stocks, Australians remained heavy, and fresh losses were registered. There was not a great deal going on among Foreign Government issues, and for the most part the overnight levels were repeated. Chinese, however, strengthened, but Peruvian Corporation Pref. receded to 35. The firmer tendency manifest in Home Rails at the close on Thursday continued yesterday, and further headway was made. Great Westerns led with an advance of 1½ points, and Midland Ord. and North-Eastern 5 per cent. Pref. Ord. were each a point firmer, whilst Southern Def. Ord. scored a similar advance. The Pref. Stocks also gained the turn, and Undergrounds appreciated. Colonial and Foreign Rails also made a strong showing, the Argentine issues improving sharply, while Grand Trunks and San Paulos were other good markets. In the Industrial section, the Provision shares made a strong showing, while Tobaccos, Electrical Equipments, and Iron and Steels strengthened in several directions.

INDUSTRIAL MARKET.

TENDENCY GENERALLY FIRM.

CABLES WELL SUPPORTED.

Although trading was to some extent restricted by preliminary contango arrangements, the general tone of the Industrial Market yesterday remained cheerful right up to the finish. Cables and Wireless stocks proved one of the most active counters yesterday, quite a number of buying orders being received for new account, while in the "Street" Columbia Graphophones were a good feature.

After opening fairly firm, the trans-Atlantic favourites lost ground, steadying somewhat in the late "Street" dealings. Brazil Tractions were finally 36½, after being 38⅛ and 36⅛; and Hydro-Electrics 38 and 39½. Nickels finished firm at 25⅛, after dipping to 24⅝; and Radios 41¾, after being 40½.

Columbia Graphophones enjoyed a late spurt, the final quote of 3 11/16 leaving them 1/16 to the good on balance. H.M.V.'s improved 1/16 to 3 1/16. Vocalions lost part of their present rise, closing at 12s. 9d.

Cables and Wireless stocks continued on the up-grade, the Preference gaining a point at 83, the "A" Ordinary a similar amount at 31, and the "B" stock ½ at 17½.

A renewed investment inquiry was noticeable for Electric Cable manufacturers' shares, but Supply shares were quiet.

Iron, Coal and Steel descriptions found fresh supporters from the provinces, and higher levels were reached, Thornycrofts, Cory, Wm. Hadfields and Guest Keen, all appreciating.

A few end-account sales were witnessed among Motor shares, but fresh buyers also made their appearance, and movements were irregular.

Although there was not a great deal doing among Textiles, the tone remained very firm. Rayons showed little variation.

Stores, Catering and Food Supply shares were up fairly steady on the whole, but there was some irregularity in places.

Of the Provision group, Home and Colonial Ord. lost the turn at 14s. 1½d., but buyers continued in evidence for international Tea at 21s. 7½d., Liptons at 5s. 6d., and Maypole Def. at a similar figure. Schweppes Def. closed 6s. higher at 35s.

Breweries gave a rather mixed display. Mitchell and Butlers strengthened, as did Courage Ord., but slight recessions were shown by Bass Ord., Distillers, Guinness, Hoare Ord. and Vancouvers.

Tobaccos moved within narrow limits, though an irregular tone ruled. Newspapers maintained a firm front, and steady investment buying was again reported for the principal Insurance shares.

Most of the interest in the Shipping again centred around P. and O. Def., which improved to the extent of 1s. 3d.

Among Land shares, Forestals continued on the upgrade, but Hudsons Bays and Sudans were unaltered.

In other directions, a little profit-taking was noticeable in such shares as Turner and Newall, United Molasses and Dunlops, but fair support was still forthcoming for Imperial Chemicals, African and Eastern, and Spillers. The Swedish group seemed rather undecided. Among the Gas stocks, Imperial Continentals were wanted, and rose 8 to 370.

RECENT ISSUE DEALINGS.

There was not a great deal doing among the recent issues. Unilever new Ord. were a very firm spot around 20s. 9d.; Philips's Lamps improved to 2⅝; Edmundson's Electricity Corporation 5 per cent. Debs. eased slightly to 2¾ premium.

OIL SHARES EASIER.

Contrary to the tendency prevailing on the two preceding days, the Oil Share market became dull in the afternoon yesterday, following a steady start. Losses were fairly general among the recognised leaders. Shells declined 1/16 to 4 7/16 and Royal Dutch ¼ to 30⅜. Anglo-Persians were offered and closed with a loss. Both the Eagle issues steadily declined. Among Venezuelans, British Controlled Preferred and Common left off fractionally lower, but Creoles further hardened following an advance in New York on Thursday.

RUBBER SHARES FIRM.

Despite a further reaction in commodity values, quite a firm tone prevailed in the Rubber Share market, and the price movements registered at the close, although few in number and insignificant in extent, were, with a couple of small exceptions, favourable to holders. In the raw material market rather firmer conditions ruled at the opening, but subsequently values went back again sharply. Spot and September sold from 4 3/16d. to 4 1/16d. per pound, and October to December closed at 4 3/16d. after 4 5/16d. per pound; January to March fetched only 4¾d. per pound. London stocks of rubber on Monday next are expected to show an increase of over a thousand tons.

DEARER GOVERNMENT BORROWING.

SOVEREIGNS FROM ABROAD.

Applications were received at the Bank of England yesterday for £40,000,000 Treasury bills. Tenders dated Monday to Saturday next at £99 9s. 6d. receive about 75 per cent., above in full. The average rate indicated is about 2 3/16 per cent., as against 2 1/16 per cent. last week.

Conditions remained very easy in Lombard street, the market being well supplied with funds, and members experienced difficulty in placing balances over the night at 1¼ per cent. Old day-to-day money was also renewed at this figure, and weekly fixtures went on at 2 per cent.

Discount rates were firmer owing to the higher average at which the Treasury bills were allotted. The quotation for fine three months' Bank bills stiffened to 2 1/16 per cent., and secondhand Treasuries were called 2 1/32 to 2 1/16 per cent. The banks were buyers of October bills at 2 per cent. and of Novembers at 2 1/16 per cent.

Silver rose 1/16d. further on Eastern buying to 16⅜d. per ounce for both spot and forward delivery. Gold remained at 85s. 0½d. per ounce fine.

Next week £560,495 in bar gold is due from South Africa.

The Bank received £359,374 in sovereigns from abroad, sold £8,739 bars, sovereigns exported £4,000.

Both the dollar exchanges again appreciated sharply in terms of sterling yesterday. The New York rate was 1/16c. worse at 4.85 15/16. Movements of the Continental exchanges were mainly in favour of London. The outstanding movement was that of the reichsmark, which ended up 1½pf. cheaper. Paris was steady, but Swiss francs were 1c. cheaper. Belgas, however, appreciated by 1¼c., closing at 34.83½. In the South American section, the milreis suffered a sharp relapse, closing 1/16 worse at 4 15/16. The Argentine peso also cheapened by 1/16 to 39 15/16.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

TURNER AUTOMATIC RECONSTRUCTION.

The liquidator of Turner Automatic Machines, appointed together with a committee of shareholders on 26th February last, has issued a circular summarising the course of events since that date. He states that the committee and himself have formed the conclusion that unduly large profits were made out of the promotion of the company (in 1926), and that the company's business was carried on recklessly. Dealing with the possibility of reconstructing the company, the liquidator states that additional working capital would be required. This would entail the finding by the shareholders of a few pence per share, and the formation of a new company, and the issue of shares with preferential rights in respect of the new money put up. The committee is anxious to know to what extent shareholders would be prepared to support a reconstruction scheme. Paid-up capital is £250,000 in 1,000,000 shares of 5s. each. For period ended 30th November, 1929, accounts showed loss of £36,597, while preliminary expenses, etc., stood at £33,975.

SINGER'S SHARES.

Mr. A. C. Bourner, F.C.A., at the meeting of Singer and Co., motor car manufacturers, of which he is a director, suggested as a remedy for the low level of the company's scrip that the company should open a register of shares for sale. Members willing to buy would also register their requirements, and thus provide, he said, the means of bringing the seller and buyer into contact through the agency of the company, by monthly circular to members only. He added that the directors would consider the matter and inform the shareholders of their decision.

WARING AND GILLOW.

Lord Brentford and Sir W. H. Peat, the Waring and Gillow Committee, announce that they have every reason to hope that soon they will complete the terms of the new loan with the bank. They will then call a meeting of all the creditors to submit definite proposals to them—proposals which they hoped would provide an immediate and substantial payment in cash, and for the creditors to elect their representative to the Committee.

BIG AMERICAN BANKING FUSION.

Plans for consolidating the Bank American of California and the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association were agreed upon at a joint meeting of the officials of the Transamerica Corporation and the merging banks. The new institution's resources will aggregate $1,350 million, of which the Bank of Italy will supply a billion.

STEELWORKS TO CLOSE.

Notices have been posted at Briton Ferry Steelworks stating that the works will be closed indefinitely at the end of the present month. Three hundred men are affected. It is hoped that the stoppage, which is due to foreign competition, may only be temporary. It is also authoritatively stated at Swansea that the output of the West Wales Steelworks generally will be restricted for some weeks to come.

GAUMONT PICTURES.

The Gaumont British Picture Corporation represents the biggest amalgamation in Great Britain of theatres and picture houses. Inter alia it controls the General Theatres Corporation, Denman Picture Houses, the Standard Film Company and Provincial Cinematograph Theatres, Ltd. The last-named important undertaking was acquired last year by the acceptance of Ordinary shareholders of 35s. each for their shares, thus giving the Gaumont Corporation effective control of P.C.T. and its associated companies. By this acquisition the theatres owned or controlled by the Corporation was increased to approximately 300. For the year to March 31 last a dividend of 6 per cent. is announced on Gaumont Picture Corporation Ordinary shares, which is the same as before, and presumably it indicates that profits have been maintained. On the previous occasion the balance carried forward was reduced from £45,341 to £27,296. The capital is now £3,750,000, of which £1,250,000 is in 7½ per cent. Cumulative Preference shares of £1 each and the balance in Ordinary shares of 10s. each. The latter are quoted at about 13s. 6d., so that, on the basis of the 6 per cent. dividend, the yield is very small, indicating a belief that the future will witness a substantial increase in profits.

METROPOLE INDUSTRIES LOSS.

The accounts of Metropole Industries for the period from May 1st, 1929, to May 31st, 1930, show a debit balance of £144,541 at the profit and loss account. The issued capital is £347,500. The loss for the thirteen months was £32,036, to which has been added £111,679 reserve for investment in and advances to subsidiary companies, and £27,024 the balance of expenditure on advertising, artists' fees and recording for period ended April 30th, 1929. In addition £12,844 has been provided for reserve for loss on investment, £8,485 reserve for loan to late managing director, and £1,550 expenses in connection with operations in Germany. The sum of £49,078, the credit balance on reserve at April 30th, 1929, has been deducted.

ATTRACTIVE PREFERENCE SHARES.

Certain amounts of attractive Preference shares are now available in the market. These include a line of 1,000 Vickers 5 per cent. tax free, at 17s. 9d., at which figure the gross yield is 7¼ per cent. The amount required for interest is a little over £43,000, and the amount available on the last occasion was nearly £867,000. Among shares recently issued are Marks and Spencer 7 per cent., which are offered at a little under 22s. free of stamp duty, thus yielding over 6¼ per cent. The interest requires £70,000, and on the last occasion £269,000 was available for the purpose. Ferranti 7 per cent. Prefs. are offered at 20s. 6d., also free of stamp duty, thus yielding about 6¾ per cent., and in this case the interest is covered about three times. Almost 7 per cent. is indicated on Imperial Smelting Corporation 6½ per cent. Preference at 18s. 6d. The first results of this undertaking have yet to be announced, but a net profit of £396,000 is estimated, whereas the interest on these shares requires only £146,250. A well secured share is British Thomson Houston 7 per cent., which, at 22s. 9d., yields over 6¼ per cent. The amount required for interest is £84,000, which, on the last occasion, was covered nearly four times. Where the investor requires a still bigger margin of safety, and in order to obtain that is content with a smaller yield, an excellent investment is Associated Portland Cement 5½ per cent. Preference, of which about 3,000 shares are available at 19s. 3d., thus yielding a little over 5¾ per cent. In this case the interest requirement is £127,585, while the amount available last time was £632,515.

LIVERPOOL — WHEAT — Overnight cables generally were worse than expected, and forward deliveries of wheat here showed a fair decline at the outset, but prices afterwards improved on a better demand for actual wheat until a fair advance on Thursday night had been recorded, then a slight reaction occurred, but with a good demand from "shorts" to cover, prompted by higher afternoon cables, values sharply advanced, and though not finishing at best marked a heavy gain on the previous night. C.i.f. parcels wheat No. 2 Manitoba afloat sold at 32/- to 32/1½, shipping 35/1½ to 32/3; No. 3 afloat 31/3, and New South Wales afloat 32/9 per quarter. PROVISIONS.

LIVERPOOL.—BACON—In the weekly revision of prices no quotable change was made in Danish or Swedish at London, and the only alteration at Manchester was a reduction of 2/- per cwt. in Swedish, past week's Danish killings being slightly less than the previous week. There is a steady tone in Continental and Irish here, Swedish being reduced 2/- to 85/- to 89/- per cwt., in sympathy with the decline in Manchester. American bacon steady, and in moderate request at late prices. HAMS steady and unaltered, with a fair inquiry for short cut. Shoulders scarce and nominal. LARD on the spot 6d. per cwt. dearer, following higher c.i.f. rates; prime steam now 60/- to 61/-, and American refined 61/6 to 63/6, with a fair demand for latter. PRODUCE.

LONDON.—SUGAR—Moderate inquiries continue for British refined, and prices remain unaltered. There is a steady export trade still going on in the all-favoured T.L. gran. Raw refining sugars dull, and Cuban 96 per cent. October quoted 5/6¾, November 5/8¼, and December 5/9 c.i.f. Terminal sections of raw steady, quiet. Sales include December 4/11¾, January 5/8½, May 6/2¼, August 6/5¼. COFFEE—Only a small turnover on the spot, but prices keep steady. Brazilian kinds for shipment a shade easier owing to rate of exchange. COCOA—Spot market featureless; forward positions steady. Accra F/F October-December C.A.L. contract 27/6 f.o.b.; terminal December sold 30/6, March 30/6. Sales 120 tons. TEA—No alteration in the private contract market, and business conducted on quiet lines. RUBBER opened steadily, but assumed a dull and easier tone. Sheet, spot and September, sold 4⅞d., 4¾d.; October-December, 4¹⁵⁄₁₆d., 4⅞d.; January-March, 4½d., 4¾d.; April-June, 5¹⁄₁₆d., 4¹⁵⁄₁₆d. London stocks on Monday next are expected to show an increase of 1,100 to 1,200 tons, and Liverpool 1,300 to 1,400 tons. JUTE—A fair amount of business was effected, and, with some reserve shown by holders, prices improved 5/- per ton. SHELLAC—Market steadier; T.N. spot, 97/6; October sold 89/-, December sellers 92/-, March sold 93/-, and August steamer at 84/-, with October-November 84/- to 86/-.

OILS—Linseed Cakes—Trade unusually quiet, even for the time of year, and, with an abundance of grass still available and feeders economising as much as possible, there is almost a total absence of any consumptive demand, while the future shows little prospect of any material advance in prices. Consequently country merchants and speculators are marking time for the moment, in view of the continued depressed condition of agriculture in general. Best London-made find a dull sale at about last week's quotation of £9 10/- to £9 15/-, and foreign descriptions remain quietly steady at £9 10/- ex ship for best brands of 12 per cent. oil Calcuttas, and £10 10/- ex store for 13 per cent. oil nutted Grecians in bags. Cotton Cakes—Afloat and September shipments of Egyptians have changed hands at £3 18/9 to £4, ex ship terms, and there are now sellers of winter delivery at £4 1/3 to £4 2/6, but the amount of business passing is comparatively small, notwithstanding the low prices prevailing in all positions. English makes remain firmly held at £4 15/- to £4 17/6 for both spot and forward delivery. Decorticated Cotton Meal—Prime quality 48/50 per cent. for September-October shipment finds buyers at £8 10/- ex ship, with the lower grades of Chinese offerings at £7 15/- to £8. Offals—English straight run middlings may be bought on slightly easier terms at £5 15/- to £5 17/6, and bran at £5 for ordinary and £6 for broad. Fancy Plate middlings make £6 in store, and Plate pollards £4 17/6 to £5.

OILS—Linseed firmer; spot 32/-, September 30/1½, September-December 29/7½, January-April 28/4½. Rape idle; crude spot 34/6, refined 35/-. Cotton quiet; crude Egyptian spot 27/-, common edible 32/6, deodorised 34/-. Cocoanut dull; Ceylon drums September-October 26/6, Galle ditto 26/-. Turpentine dearer; American spot 37/3, October-December 37/9, January-April 39/6 per cwt. OILSEEDS—Linseed market quiet, but Plate descriptions steadier on some recovery in the Argentine exchange rate; Calcutta to London September-October, also October-November, £16 5/-; bold Bombay to London ditto £17 15/-. Plate to Hull September-October, also October-November and November-December, £14 15/-; new crop December-January £13 12/6, January-February £13 10/-. Rapeseed slow; Toria to Hull Continent September-October, also October-November, £13 5/-. Cottonseed quiet; Egyptian black to Hull old September £6 12/6, new September £6 17/6, November-January £6 16/3; white September £6 2/6, November-January £6 6/3, Bombay September-October £6 5/-. Groundnuts dull and easy for old crop; Coromandel machined September, also October, £14 1/3; November £13 16/3, December £13 13/9, January £13 13/9. Castorseed quiet; Bombay September-October £14 18/9, October-November £14 17/6. Soya beans slow; Manchurian afloat, also for shipment up to December, £8 13/9, January £8 12/6 per ton.

LIVERPOOL.—CANE SUGAR quiet, with sellers of basis 96 deg. pol. parcels, September shipment, at 5/7¼ per cwt. c.i.f. to U.K. COCOA—West African on spot continues in slow demand, with values more or less nominal; forward shipments of new main crop easier; sellers fair fermented Accra, October-December and November-January shipments, at 26/9, and buyers at 3d. to 6d. per cwt. less, f.o.b. D clause. COFFEE—Values barely maintained for all desirable qualities. OIL CAKES—The demand for imported brands still somewhat quiet. Linseed descriptions unchanged at £9 American, and £9 10/- River Plate c.i.f. September shipment. Egyptian undecorticated cottonseed quoted £4 5/- ex ship terms September shipments. Burmah ground nut in forward positions unchanged at £5 7/6 for 39 per cent., £5 2/6 36 per cent., and £6 12/6 49 per cent. jungle, c.i.f. terms. Liverpool palm kernel feeding stuffs move off slowly; crushers quote £5 7/6 cakes, £5 10/- crushed meals, and £6 sweetened crushed meals ex mills; and cocoanut cake and meals remain at £7 per ton ex mills. RUBBER—Para hard fine spot 6¼d., plantation spot 4½d., October-December 4¾d., January-March 4¹³⁄₁₆d. per lb. buyers.

LIVERPOOL SUGAR—The following are Messrs. Tate and Lyle's quotations:—Crystals—Ones 22/6, small ones 22/-, twos 20/9, bright 20/7½. Granulated—Standard 20/6, H.T.S. 20/7½, coarse 21/1½, fine 21/1½. Cubes, ex refinery in London—Afternoon tea 24/6, No. 1 24/3, H.T.S. 24/-, less 1¼ per cent. discount.

MISCELLANEOUS.

DUBLIN HAY AND STRAW.—We had a larger supply of hay than expected after the bad weather of yesterday, and conditions in most cases fairly good. Demand good for well-saved loads, but other class is still a slow sale, but clearance made at:—First crop 4/3 general, and for a few shedded loads a little more money; second and third crop 3/9 to 4/-, exceptional 4/3, old meadow sorts 3/6 to 3/9, inferior 2/6 to 3/-. Straw in larger supply; demand, on the whole, not so good as last market, values over the day's proceedings showing a drop of 3d. per cwt. in most cases—namely, wheaten per cwt. 4/3 to 4/6, and oaten 3/9 to 4/- per cwt.
